Prayer in the instant petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, is for directing the respondents No.1 to 3 to protect the life and personal liberty of the petitioner at the hands of respondent Nos.4 to 7.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has contended that son of the petitioner, namely, Karamjeet, aged about 20 years had an affair with a girl namely, Harshdeep d/o Vishal Kumar and left the residence on 10.05.2025 and thereafter he has not been contacted and his phone is switched off. He has further contended that respondent Nos.4 to 7 came to the house of the petitioner on 11.05.2025 while looking for their daughter namely, Harshdeep and alleged that the son of the petitioner allured their girl. Now, respondent Nos.4 to 7 are misbehaving with the petitioner and his family members and threatening them that in case, the girl is not recovered, then they would not spare the petitioner and his family member.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has also contended that the petitioner had also filed representation dated 20.05.2025 (Annexure P-1) before the Senior Superintendent of Police, District Panchkula, Haryana, but till date no action has been taken.

During the course of arguments, learned counsel for the petitioner has stated that he would be satisfied, in case, the pending representation (Annexure P-1) is decided by respondent No.2.

Notice of motion.

However, it will have no effect on any civil or criminal action, which could be initiated in the matter in accordance with law.
