Mr. Ankit Joshi, Advocate (Legal-aid-counsel)
for petitioner in CWP-22785-2021.

Mr. Abhivadya Sood, Advocate for respondent No.2 in all cases.

Harsimran Singh Sethi, J. (Oral)

1. By this common order, six writ petitions, the details of which have been given in the heading, are being decided as all these petitions involve the same question of law on similar facts. Facts are being taken from CWP-18702-2021

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the present petition has been filed against the interim order passed by the Labour Court dated 04.02.2021 (Annexure P-6) by which, all the documents sought to be produced by the employer, have not been summoned but only selected record has been ordered to be produced.

CWP-18702-2021 and other connected cases :3:

3. Learned counsel for the respondent on the other hand submits that the impugned order is only an interim order and is not deciding the lis between the parties and only in case, after the final decision of the Tribunal, the petitioners are aggrieved for not calling any record, they can raise appropriate grievance.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that keeping in view the statement of learned counsel for the respondent, the present petitions may kindly be disposed of having been not pressed any further with liberty to the petitioners that in case, ultimately after the final award any grievance survives, the petitioners can avail appropriate remedy.

5. Ordered accordingly.

6. Keeping in view the fact that the some of the petitioners have already attained the age superannuation and the matter is still pending, the Labour Court is requested to decide the issue as expeditiously as possible preferably within a period of next six months.

7. Pending applications, if any, also stand disposed of accordingly.

8. A photocopy of this order be placed on the connected case files.
