AMAN CHAUDHARY, J. (ORAL)

1. Prayer in the present petition filed under Section 483 BNSS is for grant of regular bail to the petitioner in case FIR No.504 dated 12.06.2023, registered under Sections 302, 34, 120-B and 201 of IPC and Section 25-54-59 of Arms Act, at Police Station Camp, District Palwal, Haryana.
2. Learned counsel contends that the petitioner has been in custody for 2 years and more than 4 months. He alleges false implication. The occurrence took place at 07:30 P.M. on 11.06.2023, while the FIR was registered on the next day at 09:40 A.M. Co-accused have been granted bail vide orders dated 05.05.2025 and 29.04.2025, Annexures P-3 and P-4 respectively. Charges were framed on 03.10.2023, however, out of 32 prosecution witnesses, 9 including the complainant and other material witnesses stand examined. The petitioner is involved in 1 more case under 379B IPC and SC/ST Act, wherein he is on bail.

Reliance is placed on the judgment passed by Hon'ble The Supreme Court titled as Maulana Mohd. Amir Rashadi vs. State of U.P. and others, 2012(2) SCC 382.

3. The custody certificate dated 28.10.2025, filed by the learned State counsel is taken on record. As per the same, the petitioner is behind bars for 2 years, 4 months and 8 days.

4. Learned State counsel and learned counsel for the complainant oppose the bail on the ground that there are specific allegations against the petitioner of having shot the deceased, one Katta has also been recovered from him and there was a private complaint registered against him prior to the FIR. However, learned State counsel is unable to controvert the submissions with regard to stage of the case, co-accused having been granted bail and the petitioner being on bail in the other case.

5. Heard.

6. Hon'ble The Supreme Court in the case of Maulana Mohd. Amir Rashadi (Supra) had held that, "As observed by the High Court, merely on the basis of criminal antecedents, the claim of the second respondent cannot be rejected. In other words, it is the duty of the Court to find out the role of the accused in the case in which he has been charged and other circumstances such as possibility of fleeing away from the jurisdiction of the Court, etc."

7. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, in particular that the petitioner is in custody for the last 2 year, 4 months and 8 days; on bail in other case; co-accused were enlarged on bail; charges stand framed wayback on 03.10.2023, however, 23 prosecution witnesses still remain to be examined, the trial is likely to take a considerable time, further incarceration of the petitioner would be violative of his right enshrined under Article 21 of the Constitution of India, the present petition is allowed.
