1. In the present petition, learned counsel for the parties submit that the dispute between the family has been amicably settled and as per the compromise on which they have arrived, the parties have decided that they will keep on living in their respective rooms in the premises concerned, where they are already living and due care will be taken of the father in the way that they will serve him with the foods and the necessities which he needs. Learned counsel for the parties further submit that as per the agreed compromise, the sons, namely, Mohd. Amjad, Mohd. Aamir and Mohd. Sadiqu jointly will keep on paying a sum of ₹4500/- by 10th of every month which will be deposited in the bank account of their father so that he can take care of his basic needs from the said amount. Apart from all of this, the sons of the senior citizen have also agreed that in case of any medical urgency, they will take care of their father as and when required.

2. Learned counsel for the parties submit that keeping in view the said agreement between the parties, the father undertakes that the order dated 20.07.2017 passed by the authorities under the The Maintenance and Welfare of Parents and Senior Citizens Act, 2007, will not be executed.

3. The present petition is disposed of keeping in view the said compromise between the parties.

4. Pending miscellaneous application, if any, also stands disposed of.
