Mr. Rajesh Punj, Advocate with
Mr. Sarvesh Rattan, Advocate and
Mr. Sahaj Punj, Advocate for respondent No. 1.

Ms. Akshita Chauhan, Deputy Advocate General, Punjab.

Harsimran Singh Sethi J. (Oral)

1. In the present petition, the grievance of the petitioner is that the petitioner-College has been made liable for the attachment of their Savings Account bearing No. 6087, vide order dated 18.06.2024 (Annexure P-4) for the execution of the Award dated 19.11.2019 (Annexure P-1), which has been passed in favour of the private respondent.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner-College submits that in an Execution Petition filed by the respondents, certain objections were raised by the petitioner but the same have not been decided and straightaway the Savings Account bearing No. 6087 of the petitioner-College has been attached vide order dated 18.06.2024 (Annexure P-4), which is arbitrary and illegal. Learned counsel further submits that keeping in view the order passed by this Court dated 23.07.2024, a sum of ₹75,000/- has already been deposited and rest of the amount as assessed by the Executing Court in the Execution Petition, after dealing with the objections raised by the petitioner, will be deposited subject to availing of appropriate remedy in case, the petitioner is aggrieved against the said order.

3. Learned counsel for the respondent No. 1 submits that he has no objection in case, the calculation of entitlement of the decree holder is done by the Executing Court after dealing with the objections raised by the petitioner.

4. Keeping in view the above mentioned facts, the present petition is disposed of with the direction that the order dated 18.06.2024 (Annexure P-4) attaching the account of the petitioner is set-aside. The Executing Court, after dealing with the objections raised by the petitioner, will assess the entitlement of the respondent-employee under the Award dated 19.11.2019 (Annexure P-1) and within a period of one month from the said assessment, the petitioner will deposit the said amount subject to availing any remedy available to him in case, the petitioner is aggrieved against the said order.

5. Petition is disposed of in above terms.
