SUKHVINDER KAUR, J.

The present petition has been filed for setting aside the impugned order dated 15.02.2023 passed by the Court of learned Additional Sessions Judge, Fatehabad, in an appeal No.CRA-80-2023, arising out of judgment of conviction dated 12.01.2023 and order of sentence dated 16.01.2023 passed by learned Judicial Magistrate Ist Class, Fatehabad in Complaint No.NACT-1047 of 2018 under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instrument Act, to the extent, whereby, the sentence of the petitioner was suspended conditionally by imposing a condition to deposit 20% of the compensation amount awarded by the trial Court within 60 days.

2. The present complaint under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881 (hereinafter to be referred as N.I. Act) was filed by the complainant alleging that the accused in discharge of his legal liability towards the complainant, issued a cheque bearing No.000042 dated 01.08.2018, amounting to Rs.10,70,000/-, drawn on HDFC Bank, Branch Ding Mandi. On presentation, the same were dishonoured and returned with the remarks 'insufficient funds' vide memo dated 01.08.2018.

3. Vide judgment of conviction dated 12.01.2023 and order of sentence dated 16.01.2023 passed by learned trial Court, the petitioner was convicted and sentenced to undergo simple imprisonment for a period of one year and to pay compensation of Rs.18,00,000/- for commission of offence punishable under Section 138 of Negotiable Instruments Act within a period of two months from passing of the said order. Thereafter, the petitioner preferred an appeal against the said judgment of conviction and order of sentence before the learned Sessions Judge, Fatehabad. The learned Appellate Court vide order dated 15.02.2023 suspended the sentence of the petitioner subject to depositing 20% of the compensation amount within a period of 60 days.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner inter alia contends that the learned lower Appellate Court failed to appreciate the facts in the right perspective and imposed the condition to deposit 20% of the compensation and such a condition is illegal, arbitrary and in violation of the law as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Jamboo Bhandari vs. M.P. State Industrial Development Corporation Ltd. and others, 2023(4) RCR (Criminal) 296, wherein it was held that-

"6. What is held by this Court is that a purposive interpretation should be made of Section 148 of the N.I. Act. Hence, normally, Appellate Court will be justified in imposing the condition of deposit as provided in Section 148. However, in a case where the Appellate Court is satisfied that the condition of deposit of 20% will be unjust or imposing such a condition will amount to deprivation of the right of appeal of the appellant, exception can be made for the reasons specifically recorded.

7. Therefore, when Appellate Court considers the prayer under Section 389 of the Cr.P.C. of a petitioner who has been convicted for offence under Section 138 of the N.I. Act, it is always open for the Appellate Court to consider whether it is an exceptional case which warrants grant of suspension of sentence without imposing the condition of deposit of 20% of the fine/compensation amount. As stated earlier, if the Appellate Court comes to the conclusion that it is an exceptional case, the reasons for coming to the said 4 conclusion must be recorded."

5. Having heard learned counsel for the petitioner and after perusing the judgment passed in Jamboo Bhandari (supra), the Appellate Court was required to consider whether the present case falls in the exception or not.

6. In the present case, while imposing condition of depositing 20% of the compensation amount, the learned Appellate Court has not afforded any opportunity to petitioner to make submissions regarding the exceptional circumstances warranting requirement of waiver of depositing 20% of the compensation amount and imposed the said condition without any such opportunity.

7. Therefore, the impugned order dated 15.02.2023, whereby, the condition of depositing 20% of the compensation amount has been imposed for granting suspension of sentence upon the petitioner is hereby set aside. The learned lower Appellate Court is directed to re-examine the case after granting an opportunity to the petitioner to make submissions regarding the exceptional circumstances and decide whether it is an appropriate case that warrants waiver of the requirement of depositing 20% of the compensation amount awarded by learned trial Court.

8. The directions given in the order dated 15.02.2023, by learned Appellate Court to the extent of depositing 20% of compensation, are set aside and it is also clarified that the order of suspension of sentence would not be disturbed in any manner and same would not be subject to the observations, which are yet to be made by the Appellate Court while dealing with the provisions of Section 148 of the Act.

9. The matter is remanded back to the learned lower Appellate Court with a direction to decide the matter afresh in accordance with law in the light of judgment passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Jamboo Bhandari's case (supra).

10. The petition is disposed of accordingly.

11. Pending miscellaneous application(s), if any, also stand(s) disposed of.
