IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

(155) CWP-16762-2025
Date of Decision : 29.05.2025

Mukesh Kumar and others …Petitioners

Versus

The Registrar General, Firm and Societies, Haryana and others

...Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE KULDEEP TIWARI

Present: Mr. Ashwani Bakshi, Advocate for the petitioners.

KULDEEP TIWARI, J.(ORAL)

1. Through the instant writ petition, cast under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India, a challenge is thrown to the order dated 07.08.2024 (Annexure P-16), as passed by the State Registrar, Firms and Societies, Haryana (respondent No.2), whereby, the appeal preferred by the petitioners No.2 and 3, has been dismissed.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioners fairly admits that the order, which is impugned before this Court, is an appealable order, before the Registrar General, Firms and Societies, Haryana (respondent No.1). He further submits that earlier also, this issue was raised in an appeal, however, the same was not decided by the Registrar General, Firms and Societies, Haryana (respondent No.1), in a time bound manner, and the same was rendered infructuous, on account of completion of election process, and therefore, the petitioners have now straightway approached this Court, by filing the instant writ petition, challenging the order (supra).

3. This Court does not find the reasons sufficient to sidetrack the statutory remedy, as available to the petitioners, only on account of the apprehension that their appeal will not be decided in a time bound manner. The instant writ petition is purely a misconceived motion, and the same does not require any interference, at this stage.

4. Consequently, the instant writ petition is disposed of.

5. However, the petitioners are relegated to the Registrar General, Firms and Societies, Haryana (respondent No.1), for redressal of their grievance, as sought through the instant writ petition.

6. In case, the petitioners approaches the Registrar General, Firms and Societies, Haryana (respondent No.1), by filing apt motion, within a period of one month, from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order, the latter, shall decide the same within six months, thereafter.

7. Ordered accordingly.
