

“Learned counsel for the petitioner(s) inter alia contends that the petitioner is mother-in-law of the main accused, who was earlier granted the concession of bail. She contends that the FIR in question relates to the year 2020 whereas the arrest of the petitioner is being sought in the year 2025. She further contends that she is ready and willing to join the investigation as and when called for and to extend all cooperation to the Investigating Agency.”

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner has reiterated the submissions and further submitted that the petitioner has joined the investigation and her custodial interrogation may not be required.

4. On the other hand, learned State counsel, on instructions from ASI Deepak, also submits that the petitioner has joined the investigation and is no longer required for further investigation.

5. In view of the above statement made by learned counsel for the parties, the interim order dated 04.06.2025 passed by a Co-ordinate Bench of this Court is made absolute. The petitioner shall continue to join the investigation, as and when called by the Investigating Officer. The petitioner shall also abide by the conditions as specified under Section 482 (2) of B.N.S.S.

6. Pending application(s) stand(s) also disposed of.
