CRM-47953-2025

This is an application under Section 528 of BNSS, 2023 to prepone the main case which is fixed for 09.12.2025.

For the reasons mentioned in the application, the same is allowed and the main case is taken on board today itself.

CRM-M-31819-2025

1. This is the first petition under Section 483 of BNSS, 2023 for grant of regular bail to the petitioner in case FIR No.94 dated 14.03.2025, under Section 21(c), 29 of NDPS Act, registered at Police Station City Faridkot, District Faridkot.

2. Status report by way of an affidavit of Tarlochan Singh, PPS,
Deputy Superintendent of Police, Sub Division Faridkot, District Faridkot
filed on behalf of the State is taken on record.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned State counsel have been heard and material collected by the police during investigation has been perused.

4. Brief facts of the prosecution case are that on 14.03.2025, on the basis of suspicion, co-accused Varinder Singh @ Ghagga, Sunil Singh and Parwinder Singh @ Gaggi were apprehended by the police and 302 grams of heroin was recovered from their possession. On interrogation, co-accused Varinder Singh @ Ghagga disclosed the name of the petitioner Surjit Singh Alias Vadda as the supplier of the contraband. Thereafter, petitioner was arrested on 21.03.2025.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner argued that he has been falsely implicated in the present case. His name has cropped up in the disclosure statement of co-accused Varinder Singh @ Ghagga, which is not admissible in evidence. No contraband has been recovered from the possession of the petitioner. Learned counsel further contended that since no recovery has been effected from the petitioner, the rigors of Section 37 of NDPS Act are not attracted and petitioner, thus, be released on bail.

5. On the other hand, learned State counsel has opposed the bail and argued that the petitioner is the supplier of the contraband and in view of the gravity of offence, he does not deserve the concession of bail.

6. A Co-ordinate Bench of this Court in Anshul Sardana versus State of Punjab, passed in CRM-M-65094-2024 (2025: PHHC:004198), after relying upon the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Tofan Singh versus State of Tamil Nadu, AIR 2020 Supreme Court 5592; Smt. Najmunisha, Abdul Hamid Chandmiya @

Ladoo Bapu versus State of Gujrat, Narcotics Control Bureau, 2024 INSC 290; State by (NCB) Bengaluru vs. Pallulabid Ahmad Arimutta & Anr.', 2022 (1) RCR (Criminal) 762; and Vijay Singh vs. The State of Haryana, bearing Special Leave to Appeal (Crl.) No.(s) 1266/2023, decided on 17.05.2023, has held thus:

"6.3 It is a well established principle of law that a confession made by a co-accused under Section 67 of the NDPS Act is inherently a very weak piece of evidence. Such statement(s), by themselves, cannot form the sole basis for the conviction of an individual and must be scrutinized with utmost caution in conjunction with other substantive evidence. Moreover, no recovery has been effected from the possession of the petitioner, who has been subsequently implicated as an accused solely on the basis of disclosure statement of the co-accused. However, as regular bail pertains to life and liberty of individual, Courts are obligated to strike a balance between safeguarding personal liberty and ensuring the effective administration of justice as also investigation. The final evidentiary value and admissibility of the disclosure statement made by a co-accused fall within the domain of the trial Court and are to be adjudicated during the course of the trial in accordance with established principles of law.

However, while adjudicating a plea for regular bail, this Court cannot remain oblivious to the circumstances under which the petitioner has been arraigned or implicated, including the nature of the allegations, the evidence linking the petitioner to the offence as well as the specific role attributed to the petitioner in the commission of the alleged offence. A prima facie examination of these factors is essential to ensure that the process of law is not misused, abused or misdirected."

7. Petitioner is in custody since 21.03.2025 and his name has cropped up in the disclosure statement of co-accused Varinder Singh @ Ghagga. As per his disclosure statement, the petitioner is the supplier of the contraband and thereafter, the petitioner was arrested. Nothing has been recovered from his possession and at this stage, there is no material to connect him with the alleged offence except disclosure statement suffered by co-accused. As to how much evidentiary value will be attached to the said disclosure statement will be seen during the trial. Trial is likely to take sufficiently long time to conclude and no useful purpose will thus be served by detaining the petitioner in custody anymore.

8. Having regard to the aforesaid factual position, but without commenting anything on the merits of the case, the bail application is allowed and petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his furnishing bail bonds and surety bonds to the satisfaction of learned Trial Court/Duty Magistrate concerned, on usual terms and conditions.

9. Pending misc. application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed of.
