HARSIMRAN SINGH SETHI, J. (ORAL)

1. Learned counsel for the appellant submits that in the impugned order the learned Single Judge has only dismissed the claim on the ground of delay but there are certain facts which need to be brought into the notice of the department concerned and the appellant intends to make a mercy appeal to the respondent-State for looking into his grievance sympathetically.

2. Learned counsel for the respondent submits that in case such representation is received along with any relevant document, the same will be considered, that whether it is feasible to look into the issue at hand and in case, it is found that the same can be looked into, appropriate decision will be taken on the said representation, within a period of eight weeks of receipt of the same by passing appropriate orders.

3. Learned counsel for the appellant submits that in view of the above, the present appeal may kindly be disposed of as having been not pressed.

4. Ordered accordingly.
5. In view of the above, the present appeal is disposed of as having been not pressed.

6. Pending application, if any shall also stand disposed of.
