CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE JAGMOHAN BANSAL

Present: - Mr. Sunil Kumar Nehra, Advocate,
Mr. Rahil Mahajan, Advocate,
Mr. Viren Nehra, Advocate and
Mr. Anuj Chauhan, Advocate for the petitioners
Mr. Raman Sharma, Additional Advocate General, Haryana

JAGMOHAN BANSAL, J. (Oral)

1. The petitioners through instant petition under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India are seeking setting aside of order dated 02.06.2025 (Annexure P-12) vide which they have been transferred.

2. Reply filed on behalf of respondent Nos.1 and 2 is taken on record. Registry is directed to tag the same at an appropriate place.

3. Learned State counsel, at the outset, points out that petitioner Nos.2, 4, 5 have been transferred within the city and petitioner No.9 has been transferred from Panipat to Karnal.

4. Faced with this, learned counsel for the petitioners does not press petition qua petitioner Nos.2, 4, 5 and 9.

5. Petition stands dismissed qua petitioner Nos.2, 4, 5 and 9.

6. On 01.07.2025, this Court passed the following order: -

“Inter alia contends that respondent vide communication dated 06.12.2024 issued schedule of online transfer policy. As per said schedule last date for final transfer order was 13.02.2025 whereas respondent has issued transfer order on 02.06.2025. The petitioners are holding post of LDC. They are having minor school going children. They have got their children admitted at their present place of posting. They have already deposited school fee. As their monthly salary is Rs.45,000/-, they cannot get their kids admitted at transferred place of posting. They cannot even bear cost of two kitchens, thus, impugned order of transfer needs to be quashed.

Ms. Rajni Gupta, Addl. A.G., Haryana, who on advance notice is present in Court seeks time to get instructions.

Adjourned to 04.07.2025.”

7. On being confronted with the fact that impugned transfer order has been passed on 02.06.2025 and by said date the petitioners must have got their children admitted in the schools, thus, transfer order is going to adversely affect them financially as well as mentally, Mr. Raman Sharma, learned State counsel submits that petitioners may be directed to file representation jotting down their grievances which shall be considered by the competent authority sympathetically and constructively.

8. Learned counsel for the petitioners agrees with the aforesaid arrangement.

9. In the wake of statement of both sides, the petition stands disposed of with liberty to the petitioners to file representation before the competent authority. In the event, such a representation along with supporting documentary evidence is filed within three days from today, the competent authority shall consider the same and pass an appropriate order within three days thereafter.

10. Needless to mention, the respondent is at liberty to explore option of compensating school/college fee of wards of the petitioners, if it comes to a conclusion that it is not possible to adjust the petitioners at near or previous place of posting.
