ASHWANI KUMAR MISHRA, J. (Oral)

The instant writ petition is directed against an interim order dated 13.05.2025 (Annexure P-5), passed by the Central Administrative Tribunal, Chandigarh Bench.

At the outset, we are informed that hearing in the main case itself, before the Central Administrative Tribunal, has concluded yesterday, and the judgment is reserved.

In view of the above, the instant writ petition has lost its efficacy, and the same is disposed of, as having been rendered infructuous.

However, liberty stands reserved to the petitioners to challenge the final order, if so advised.
