1. At the outset, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that during the pendency of the instant petition, unfortunately, the petitioner has since passed away, and his legal representatives are not coming forward to pursue the matter.
2. In view of the above, the instant petition is dismissed for want of prosecution.
3. However, in case any cause of action still survives, the legal representatives of the deceased-petitioner are at liberty to revive the instant petition by moving an apt application/motion.
