1. The instant petition has been filed under Section 483 of BNSS, 2023 (earlier Section 439 Cr.P.C.), for grant of regular bail to the petitioner, during the pendency of trial, who has been booked in a criminal case arising out of First Information Report, as detailed here-under:-

|----------------------------------|------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------|----------------------------------|
| Ranjit Singh@ Laddi 58       | 15.06.2022 | 386, 506, 307, 353, 186, 333,120-B of IPC, 1860 and 25,30of the Arms Act, 1959 | Sadar Banga    | ShaheedBhagat SinghNagar |

2. At the outset, learned counsel for the petitioner, very fairly, draws the attention of this Court to the order dated 26.08.2025. In view of the fact that the trial is already at its fag end, this Court does not find any substantial ground to consider the petitioner’s prayer for grant of regular bail at this stage.

3. Accordingly, present petition is disposed of with a direction to the learned trial Court to conclude and decide the trial expeditiously, preferably within a period of two months from today.

A copy of this order be transmitted to the concerned learned trial Court for necessary compliance.
