...Respondent.

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE HARKESH MANUJA

Present: Mr. Naveen Daryal, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Mr. Vivek Saini, Advocate with Mr. Arnav Goel, Advocate, for the respondent.

HARKESH MANUJA J. (Oral)

1. Learned counsel for the respondent, on instructions, from Sh. Raj Singh, Executive Engineer, OP, Division Gohana, UHBVNL, submits that in case the petitioner furnishes a fresh affidavit with respect to non-receipt of gratuity and LIC benefits by her husband, the said benefits shall be released to her within one week of furnishing of said affidavit.

2. In response, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner would furnish the requisite affidavit with respect to non-receipt of gratuity benefits by her husband within one week from today.

3. Learned counsel for respondent also submits that the respondent shall forward the case of the petitioner with respect to release of LIC benefits to the concerned office of LIC within one week from today.

4. In view of the above, learned counsel for the petitioner does not want to press the present petition.

5. Accordingly, the present petition is dismissed as not pressed. Rule stands discharged.

6. However, in case the needful is not done within the afore-stated period, as per undertaking, the petitioner would be at liberty to seek revival of the present contempt petition and in such eventuality, the erring concerned officer(s) would be liable to pay additional sum of Rs.50,000/- as costs from his/her own pocket in favour of the petitioner towards litigation expenses, immediately, i.e. on the first date of listing of revival application.
