This is an application filed under Section 528 of Bharatiya
Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 for placing on record last dismissal order dated 02.04.2025 passed in CRM-M-65266-2024.

For the reasons enumerated in application, same is allowed.
Accompanying document i.e. order dated 02.04.2025 passed in CRM-M-65266-2024 is taken on record, subject to all just exceptions.

Main case

1. Petitioner has filed 2nd petition under Section 483 of Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 for grant of regular bail in FIR No.314, dated 20.09.2022 (P/1), under Sections 498-A, 328, 302, 304-B and 120-B IPC (Section 406 IPC added later on) registered at Police Station Sadar

Ballabgarh, District Faridabad, Haryana.

2. As per facts of the case, Brij Mohan alias Bablu Hooda gave his statement that Puja, the victim was daughter of his elder brother Jagbir Singh. She was married to Deepak. They had performed marriage by spending approximately Rs. 18 lakhs. Deepak-husband, Vinesh @ Palli mother-in-law, Jagbir father-in-law and Harender brother-in-law, who is working in Haryana Police were unhappy with the dowry articles. They harassed the victim in matrimonial home. She was given beating. Deepak the husband did not fulfill his matrimonial obligations. Due to this tension, his elder brother died of heart-attack on 18.08.2022. On 07.09.2022, victim came to their village Dayalapur. On 19.09.2022 at about 8 p.m., Deepak came to their village and called the victim outside the house and gave her a plastic box by saying that it was tooth powder for disease Pyorrhea and she should not tell anybody about it. At that time, Khusia and his brother Nanak were also standing outside who invited Deepak for a cup of tea, but he went away on his motorcycle. Victim on the next day, i.e. on 20.09.2022 at 11.00. a.m. applied said tooth powder on her teeth and gums. She started feeling sick. She disclosed that the said tooth powder was given to her by Deepak by telling that it was medicine for Pyorrhea. Victim was taken to PHC Dayalpur but due to her serious condition they referred her to BKH, Faridabad. Thereafter, they took her to Sarvodya Hospital where victim died at about 02:00/2:30 p.m. It is alleged that Deepak in conspiracy with his family members gave some poisonous medicine in a box and after applying the same she died.

3. Learned counsel representing petitioner conceded that first regular bail petition filed by petitioner Vinesh Kumari was declined by this Court in CRM-M-65266-2024 vide order dated 02.04.2025. Learned counsel representing petitioner mainly argued second regular bail petition on the ground that petitioner is still behind the bars and trial in this case is going at a slow speed. She is an old lady suffering from various old age problems. She is ready to abide by terms of bail order. Therefore, her second regular bail petition may be allowed.

4. Bail petition is opposed by learned counsel representing State of Haryana. It is pointed out that there are serious allegations against petitioner. Victim was maltreated in matrimonial home and finally she died unnatural death. Copy of Postmortem Report is Annexure R-1. Challan was presented and recording of prosecution evidence is yet to start. Considering the gravity of offence, petitioner is not entitled to be released on regular bail.

5. I have considered the arguments and have gone through the record carefully. First regular bail petition filed by present petitioner was declined on merits by considering all aspects of the case. The second regular bail petition was filed on the same grounds except the period of custody for which petitioner is behind the bars. Even if this aspect of case is considered, allegations, manner in which offence has been committed and loss of life of a young married girl cannot be overlooked. Trial is at initial stage. Statements of complainant and other relevant material witnesses are yet to be recorded. Therefore, I do not find a fit case for grant of regular bail to petitioner and 2nd regular bail petition filed by her is, accordingly, dismissed.

6. Since, challan is already presented and charges are also framed, therefore, trial Court is directed to expedite the proceedings in trial. Copy of order be sent to concerned trial Court.

7. Pending miscellaneous application(s), if any, stand disposed of accordingly as well.
