2. Learned counsel contends that the petitioner has been in custody for more than 6 months. He alleges false implication in the case. Neither any demand has been raised by him nor any specific date was mentioned. The complainant has not submitted any application qua the mobiles, which are stated to be in his possession. Challan was presented on 16.05.2025 and charges have been framed on 01.08.2025. In all there are 42 prosecution witnesses. The petitioner is involved in 1 more case, wherein he is on bail. Reliance is placed on the judgment passed by Hon'ble The Supreme Court titled as Maulana Mohd. Amir Rashadi vs. State of U.P. and others, 2012(2) SCC 382.

3. The custody certificate dated 03.09.2025, filed by the learned State counsel is taken on record. As per the same, the petitioner is behind bars for 6 months and 9 days.

4. Learned State counsel opposes the bail on the ground that there are specific allegations against the petitioner of demand and received Rs.2,000/- through Google Pay. 5. Heard.

6. Hon'ble The Supreme Court in the case of Maulana Mohd. Amir Rashadi (Supra) had held that, "As observed by the High Court, merely on the basis of criminal antecedents, the claim of the second respondent cannot be rejected. 7. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, in particular that the petitioner is in custody for the last 6 months and 9 days; on bail in other case; challan stands presented on 16.05.2025; charges have been framed on 01.08.2025; out of 42 prosecution witnesses, none has been examined, the trial is likely to take a considerable time, further incarceration of the petitioner would be violative of his right enshrined under Article 21 of the Constitution of India, the present petition is allowed.

8. The petitioner is ordered to be released on regular bail, subject to furnishing bail/surety bonds to the satisfaction of trial Court/Duty Magistrate concerned, if not required in any other case and shall abide by the following conditions:-
