AMOL RATTAN SINGH, J. (ORAL)

On 07.03.2019, the following order had been passed:-

“For the 5th date in succession, a request for an adjournment has been made by learned counsel appearing for the appellant, though on the last date of hearing none had appeared for the parties because the Bar was abstaining from work.

Adjourned to 14.03.2019.

It is made clear that if the appeal is not argued even on that date on behalf of learned counsel for the appellant, it shall be deemed to have been dismissed-in-default, with no further order required to be passed in that regard.”

Today, again there is no representation on behalf of the appellant.

Consequently, the said order becomes operative and the appeal stands dismissed-in-default.
