Payment of costs and production of receipt thereof shall be a condition precedent for recording of statements in the manner directed for hereinabove.'

3. Pursuant to the aforesaid orders, report dated 31.7.2025 from Sub Divisional Judicial Magistrate, Ajnala, has been received, which is taken on record. As per the reports, the Trial Court has recorded as follows:-

I. only one person has been arrayed as accused namely accused Amarjeet Singh son of Jagtar Singh

II. As per records, there is no other complainant or affected aggrieved party other than the respondent no.2-Jagbir Singh son of Darshan Singh arrayed in the petition.

III. As per records, accused has not been declared as Proclaimed Offender.

IV that the compromise effected between the parties is genuine and without any coercion of undue influence.

4. Learned counsel for respondent No.2 admits the factum of parties having compromised and states that he has no objection in case the impugned FIR is quashed.

5. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and have carefully gone through the records of the case.

6. This Court and Apex Court has repeatedly dealt with the issue of exercise of jurisdiction under Section 482 of the Code to quash proceeding in non-compoundable offences in the cases of Gian Singh vs. State of Punjab and another, 2012 (10) SCC 303, Kulwinder Singh & others vs. State of Punjab & another, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 and Ram Gopal and another vs. State of Madhya Pradesh, 2021 (4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 322 (Criminal Appeal No.1489 of 2012 decided on 29th of September, 2021). The proposition of law that emerges from the aforesaid decisions rendered by Apex Court and this Court is:

- (a) Power u/s 482 Cr.P.C. vested with this Court is much wider and is unaffected by Section 320 of the Code.*
- (b) However, wider the power greater the caution.*
- (c) The underlining principle while exercising such power is that it can be invoked to quash the proceedings recognizing compromise between the parties in the matters which are overwhelmingly and predominantly of civil character like commercial transactions or arising out of matrimonial relationship or family disputes.*
- (d) The said power is not to be exercised in the prosecutions involving heinous and serious offences of mental depravity or offences like murder, rape, dacoity etc. as such offences are not private in nature and have a serious impact on society.*
- (e) Section 482 Cr.P.C. casts duty upon the High Court to advance interest of justice as well. It is in recognition of this duty casted upon the High Court, that Apex Court held that the High Court would not refuse to quash FIR under Section 307 merely because FIR finds mention thereof. High Court can assess nature of injuries sustained, whether such injuries inflicted on vital/delicate parts of the body/nature of weapons used etc.*
- (f) Such exercise at the hands of High Court would be permissible only after the evidence is collected after investigation and charge-sheet is filed/ charges framed during the trial. Such exercise cannot be carried out while the matter is still under investigation.*
- (g) While quashing FIR in non-compoundable offences even which are private in nature, High Court is required to consider antecedents of the accused, conduct of the accused and whether he was absconding or whether he has managed the complainant to enter into a compromise.*

6.1 The statutory provision of Section 528 of BNSS, 2023 is same as the statutory provision of Section 482 of Cr.P.C., 1973. Therefore, the above said principles of law would apply to a petition under Section 528 of BNSS, 2023 as well.

7. Thus, keeping in view the aforesaid facts and circumstances, this Court is of the considered opinion that it is a fit case to exercise jurisdiction vested u/s 528 of BNSS to quash the FIR as :-

- (i) Putting a quietus to the proceedings will bring peace and tranquility amongst parties & will accordingly further the cause of substantial justice.*
- (ii) The offences alleged are primarily of private nature.*
- (iii) The parties have compromised.*
- (iv) As per the report received the compromise is said to be voluntary in its nature.*
- (v) Complainant/victim is reported to have entered into compromise on his own volition.*

8. Consequently, the petition is allowed. FIR No.164 dated 24.6.2025, under Sections 125, 351(2) of Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023 and Sections 25 and 27 of Arms Act, 1959, registered at Police Station Ajnala, District Amritsar Rural and all consequent proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise dated 8.7.2025, are, hereby, quashed qua the petitioner.

9. The petitioner as also respondent no.2 shall remain bound by the terms of the settlement/agreement dated 8.7.2025 (copy whereof has been appended as Annexure P-2 with the instant petition).

10. The parties to the lis are at liberty to seek recall of this order on showing sufficient cause.
