On behalf of the State/complainant

On the asking of Court, Mr. Jasjit Singh Rattu, DAG Punjab accepts notice on behalf of respondent/State. He could not controvert the submissions made by learned counsel for the petitioner.

3. Analysis

Be that as it may, upon due consideration of the submissions advanced, and particularly in view of the fact that no specific role has been attributed to the present petitioner and there is nothing on record to show that the suicide note which was recovered was actually written by the deceased. Furthermore, the petitioner is a person of clean antecedents, as he is not involved in any other case and, therefore, the custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required.

In the light of above, this Court is of the considered view that there is no valid or cogent reason to deny the bail to the present petitioner, wherein he has bona fide intentions and is ready and willing to join the investigation and cooperate for furtherance of the same so that the final report can be submitted by the Investigating Agency in time.

4. Relief:-

Hence, the petitioner is directed to be released on anticipatory bail subject to his joining investigation with the Investigating Officer concerned within a period of one week from today, on furnishing of personal/surety bonds to his satisfaction. The petitioner shall also abide by the terms and conditions as envisaged under Section 482(2) of BNSS, which are reproduced below:-

- (iv) such other condition as may be imposed under sub-section (3) of section 480, as if the bail were granted under that section.’*
