3. Learned Senior counsel for the petitioners has submitted that the petitioners were initially arrested on 20.07.2023 and were released on the same day as the offences removed at that time against them were bailable in nature. Thereafter, the offence under Section 325 of IPC was added on 16.09.2023 which was further enhanced to offence under Section 307 of IPC on 09.10.2023. Thereafter, the petitioners were arrested on 01.07.2024. Learned Senior counsel for the petitioners has submitted that there have been no allegations against the petitioners for misuse of the bail granted to them, in respect of bailable offences, when they were released from custody on 20.07.2023. Learned Senior counsel for the petitioners has argued that the petitioners have been falsely implicated into the FIR in question. It has been further iterated by learned Senior counsel for the petitioners that injuries suffered by the victim are actually out of an accident having taken place which have been given the colour of a criminal case on account of malafide. Learned Senior counsel has further iterated that the offence of Section 307 of IPC is not made out from the manner of the alleged occurrence as also the injuries alleged to have been suffered by the victim. In this view of the matter, learned counsel has prayed for grant of regular bail.
4. Learned State counsel has opposed the present petition arguing that the allegations raised against the petitioners are serious in nature and thus the petitioners do not deserve the concession of the regular bail. Learned State counsel seeks to place on record custody certificates dated 13.01.2025 & 14.01.2025 of petitioners No. 1 and 2 in Court, which are taken on record.

CRM-M-41315 of 2024*6

5. Learned counsel for the complainant has vehemently opposed the grant of regular bail to the petitioners by arguing that there are clear direct allegations against the petitioners. Learned counsel for the complainant has further iterated that the offence under Section 307 of IPC is in fact made out from the factual matrix of the case.

6. I have heard counsel for the parties and have gone through the available records of the case.

7. The petitioners were initially arrested on 20.07.2023 for bailable offences and were accordingly released on the same day. Thereafter, upon invoking of Section 325 of IPC on 16.09.2023 and thereafter invoking of Section 307 of IPC on 09.10.2023, the petitioners were arrested on 01.07.2024. The challan has already been presented on 07.09.2024. Total 21 prosecution witnesses have been cited and charges are yet to be framed. Therefore, it is indubitable that the conclusion of trial will take its own time. The rival contention of learned counsel for the parties; as to whether the petitioners have been falsely implicated into the FIR in question, whether the injuries on the body of the victim have taken place on account of a accident and whether the offence under Section 307 of IPC is made out from the factual matrix of the case; gives rise to debatable issue which shall be ratiocinated upon during the course of trial. This Court does not deem it appropriate to delve deep into these rival contentions, at this stage, lest it may prejudice the trial. Nothing tangible has been brought forward to indicate the likelihood of the petitioners absconding from the process of justice or interfering with the prosecution evidence. As per custody certificates dated 13.01.2025 & 14.01.2025 filed by learned State counsel, suffered incarceration for a period of 06 months and 10 days & are not shown to be involved in any other case.

CRM-M-41315 of 2024*7

Suffice to say, further detention of the petitioners as an undertrial is not warranted in the facts and circumstances of the case.

8. In view of above, the present petition is allowed. Petitioners are ordered to be released on regular bail on their furnishing bail/surety bonds to the satisfaction of the Ld. concerned CJM/Duty Magistrate. However, in addition to conditions that may be imposed by the concerned CJM/Duty Magistrate, the petitioners shall remain bound by the following conditions:-

- (i) The petitioners shall not mis-use the liberty granted.
- (ii) The petitioners shall not tamper with any evidence, oral or documentary, during the trial.
- (iii) The petitioners shall not absent themselves on any date before the trial.
- (iv) The petitioners shall not commit any offence while on bail.
- (v) The petitioners shall deposit their passports, if any, with the trial Court.
- (vi) The petitioners shall give their cell-phone numbers to the Investigating Officer/SHO of concerned Police Station and shall not change their cell-phone numbers without prior permission of the trial Court/Illaqa Magistrate.
- (vii) The petitioners shall not in any manner try to delay the trial.

9. In case of breach of any of the aforesaid conditions and those which may be imposed by concerned CJM/Duty Magistrate as directed hereinabove or upon showing any other sufficient cause, the

CRM-M-41315 of 2024 8

State/complainant shall be at liberty to move cancellation of bail of the petitioners.

10. Ordered accordingly.
11. Nothing said hereinabove shall be construed as an expression of opinion on the merits of the case.
