for respondents no.2 to 6.

TRIBHUVAN DAHIYA, J.(ORAL)

The petition has been filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C. against the order dated 15.04.2023 passed by the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Gurugram, whereby the petitioner's application for registration of FIR filed under Section 156(3) Cr.P.C. has been dismissed.

2. Learned State counsel has objected to maintainability of the petition by relying upon a judgement passed by the Delhi High Court in Criminal Revision Petition No.1121 of 2024 titled Shreya Kapoor v. State of New Delhi and others, on the ground that the petitioner has an alternative and efficacious remedy of filing a revision petition against the impugned order before the Sessions Court.

2025.PHHC.147174

3. Considering the facts aforementioned, this Court is not inclined to entertain the present petition since the petitioner has a remedy of challenging the impugned order before the Sessions Court by filing a revision petition, and no exceptional circumstances are made out for this Court to invoke jurisdiction under Section 482 Cr.P.C.

4. The petition is accordingly disposed of with liberty to the petitioner to file a revision petition against the impugned order before the Sessions Court, if so advised.
