AMAN CHAUDHARY, J. (ORAL)

1. Prayer in the present petition filed under Section 483 BNSS is for grant of regular bail to the petitioner in case FIR No.75 dated 27.04.2025, registered under Sections 18 of NDPS Act and 52-A of Prisons Act, (Sections 61 and 85 of NDPS Act added later on) at Police Station City-I, Sangrur, District Sangrur.

2. Learned counsel contends that the petitioner has been in custody for about 7 months. He alleges false implication. It is only during the investigation that he came to be implicated in the present case. The allegations against him are of having used two smart watches and supplying of contraband. Co-accused Gurchet Singh has since been granted regular bail by this Court vide order dated 17.11.2025, after being in custody for 6 months and 2 days and had 10 cases against him, besides one Banso Bai on 17.11.2025, Prasant Majumdar and Gurpreet Singh by order of even date. Challan was presented on 06.10.2025 and the charges have not been framed and total 46 prosecution witnesses have been cited. The petitioner is involved in 27 more case, wherein he is on bail. Reliance is placed on the judgment passed by Hon'ble The Supreme Court titled as Maulana Mohd. Amir Rashadi vs. State of U.P. and others, 2012(2) SCC 382.

3. Status report along with custody certificate dated 30.11.2025 and 02.12.2025, filed by the learned State counsel are taken on record. As per the same, the petitioner is behind bars for 7 months.

4. Learned State counsel opposes the bail on the ground that there are specific allegations against the petitioner of using the smart watches and sim cards, recovered from him to facilitate the contraband to be provided to the inmates. However, he is unable to controvert the submissions with regard to stage, co-accused having been granted bail and the petitioner being on bail in other cases.

5. Heard.

6. Hon'ble The Supreme Court in the case of Maulana Mohd. Amir Rashadi (Supra) had held that, "As observed by the High Court, merely on the basis of criminal antecedents, the claim of the second respondent cannot be rejected. In other words, it is the duty of the Court to find out the role of the accused in the case in which he has been charged and other circumstances such as possibility of fleeing away from the jurisdiction of the Court, etc." Reiterating in Prabhakar Tewari vs. State of UP and another, (2020) 11 SCC 648, it was observed that, "The offence alleged no doubt is grave and serious and there are several criminal cases pending against the accused. These factors by themselves cannot be the basis for refusal of prayer for bail."

7. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, in particular that the petitioner is in custody for the last 7 months; on bail in other cases; co-accused are on bail; challan stands presented on 06.10.2025, however, charges are yet to be framed and there are a total of 46 prosecution witnesses, the trial is likely to take a considerable time, further incarceration of the petitioner would be violative of his right enshrined under Article 21 of the Constitution of India, the present petition is allowed.

8. The petitioner is ordered to be released on regular bail, subject to furnishing bail/surety bonds to the satisfaction of trial Court/Duty Magistrate concerned, if not required in any other case and shall abide by the following conditions:-
