IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

279

CWP-21551-2024

Date of Decision: 25.09.2025

Dalvir and another

...Petitioner(s)

Versus

State of Haryana and others

...Respondent(s)

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE TRIBHUVAN DAHIYA

Present:- Mr. Sumit Sangwan, Advocate for the petitioners

Mr. Parveen Mehta, Additional Advocate General, Haryana

Mr. Balvinder Sangwan, Advocate for respondent no.3/
Commission (through Video Conferencing)TRIBHUVAN DAHIYA, J. (Oral)

The petition has been filed inter alia seeking a writ of mandamus directing the respondent/Commission to consider the candidature of petitioner no.1 for the post of Assistant Professor (College cadre) in the subject of Physics in response to advertisement 61/2024 as General/Dependent of Ex-servicemen category candidate.

2. Learned counsel for the Commission contends that pursuant to an interim order passed by this Court dated 31.08.2024, petitioner no.1 was allowed to appear for the Subject Knowledge Test, but he failed to secure the minimum required thirty-five per cent marks. Therefore, he cannot be called for interview.

3. In these circumstances, learned counsel for the petitioners seeks permission to withdraw the petition with liberty to file it afresh in case result of the Test is revised by the Commission, at a later date.
4. Dismissed as withdrawn with liberty prayed for.
