SUDEEPTI SHARMA J.

1. The present contempt petition has been filed for deliberate and intentional disobedience of order dated 25.11.2024 passed by this Court in CWP-31595-2024 titled as Ram Kumar vs. State of Haryana and others.

2. The relevant para of order dated 25.11.2024 passed by this Court in CWP-31595-2024 titled as Ram Kumar vs. State of Haryana and others is reproduced as under:-

“2. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that vide aforesaid notification dated 13.12.2021 (Annexure P-1), objections/suggestions were called from the general public; however the proposal has not been finalized till date. Accordingly, he prays that time bound directions be issued to respondent No.1 to take final decision in the matter.

3. At this stage, Mr. Navneet Singh, Sr. DAG, Punjab appears on behalf of the respondents/State, in pursuance of the advance copy of paper book having already been served upon the State and does not dispute the fact that the matter pursuant to the aforesaid notification dated 13.12.2021 (Annexure P-1) is pending consideration with the authorities. However, he submits that the competent authority shall take decision either way, on the notification dated 13.12.2021 (Annexure P-1), within a period of six months from today.

4. Keeping in view the aforesaid submissions made by learned State counsel, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that he does not intend to press the instant writ petition any further, at this stage.”

3. Learned counsel for respondent No. 1 submits that notification dated 13.12.2021 was a draft notification and objections were called. After considering the objections and by following the principles of natural justice, fresh draft notification dated 21.10.2025 has been issued which superseded the earlier draft notification dated 13.12.2021 and the petitioner can still file the objections in the new notification.

4. Consequently, no case for contempt is made out and the same is dismissed.

5. Pending application (s) if any also stands disposed of.
