Date of Decision: 25.07.2025

Suraj and others

...Petitioners

Versus

State of Haryana and others

...Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE JAGMOHAN BANSAL

Present: - Mr. Sarthak Gupta, Advocate and
Mr. Sanya, Advocate for the petitioners

Mr. Shashank Bhandari, Additional Advocate General, Haryana

JAGMOHAN BANSAL, J. (Oral)

1. The petitioners through instant petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India are seeking setting aside of notice dated 02.07.2025 (Annexure P-4) whereby respondent No.3- Haryana Staff Selection Commission has withdrawn 15 advertisements.

2. The respondent by impugned notice dated 02.07.2025 has withdrawn 15 advertisements which were rolled out during 2024. The petitioners are claiming that they were eligible for the posts floated vide Advertisement No.14/2024. The respondent has withdrawn the said advertisement which would adversely prejudice them. The petitioners have already cleared CET-01 and as per impugned notice, the vacancies would be re-advertised after conducting CET-01/2025.

3. The petitioners might have cleared CET-01 which is foundation for final written examination. The passing of CET does not create absolute or vested right in favour of the petitioners. It is the prerogative of the respondent to advertise posts or withdraw the advertisement. Right is not created even if a candidate clears the exam. It is a case where advertisement is simply withdrawn and rights of candidates who were eligible as per already issued advertisement stand protected.

4. In the backdrop, this Court is of the considered opinion that present petition being bereft of merit deserves to be dismissed and accordingly dismissed.
