for the petitioner.

Mr. A.S. Chadha, Advocate for the respondents-PSPCL.

KULDEEP TIWARI, J.(ORAL)

1. Through the instant petition, a prayer is made of issuance of a writ in the nature of mandamus, directing the respondents to pay the compensation to the tune of Rs.50 lacs, on account of death of husband of the petitioner No.1, who died due to electrocution.

2. Learned counsel for both the parties are ad idem, to the effect that a mandamus can be passed upon the respondent No.2, to consider the claim of the petitioners, by passing a speaking order.

3. In view of the above, the instant writ petition is disposed of, with a direction to respondent No.2, to consider the claim of the petitioners, and in case, the petitioners are found to be entitled for any compensation, the same shall be released forthwith to the petitioners, in accordance with the policy adopted by the respondent No.1.

4. It goes without saying that fresh exercise shall be conducted only after giving due opportunity of hearing, and thereafter, the claim of the petitioners, be decided considering the instant petition, as a representation.

The above said exercise shall be carried out within a period of two months from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order/judgment.

5. Disposed of accordingly.
