the learned Single Judge in which Annexure P-11, has been quashed whereby, the removal permission for BDS course has been declined and three years have passed and students are already studying and the Dental Council of India (hereinafter referred to as 'DCI') has already granted approval for their continuation.

2. Learned counsel for respondent No.2 submits that keeping in view the inspection of infrastructure required to teach the students, has already been found to be in order as per DCI regulations in respect of respondent No.1-institution.

3. Faced with this situation that the students have been admitted and are continuing in study keeping in view the order passed by the learned Single Judge and they have already studied for a period of more than four years, learned counsel for the appellant submits that by keeping the question of law open, the present appeal may kindly be disposed of having been not pressed any further.

4. Ordered accordingly.

5. Civil miscellaneous application pending if any, also stands disposed of.
