3. Pursuant to the aforesaid order, report dated 25.08.2025 from Judicial Magistrate Ist Class, Kharar has been received, which is taken on record. As per the report, the Trial Court has recorded as follows:-

“With due regard and with reference to the order dated 31.07.2025 passed in the captioned Criminal Miscellaneous, parties were directed to appear before the Ilaqa Magistrate/Trial Court for recording their statements qua compromise and undersigned was directed to submit report on or before the next date of hearing as regards authenticity and genuineness of compromise after recording statement of both the affected parties.

As per the statements of complainant Mahadev and accused Ravi, Deepak, Kapil @ Kapil Lehri, Ajay, Vijay, Ankit @ Ankit Pal and Sagar recorded by the undersigned, both the parties have echoed the version of having arrived at voluntary compromise with free will without any even mentioned in his statement that he has no objection if FIR in question is quashed by Hon'ble High Court.

Accused persons have also mentioned in their joint statement that they have entered into compromise with complainant vide compromise deed dated 24.07.2025 as Mark A.

Even Investigating Officer ASI Balvir Singh was also summoned by this court, who also gave his separate statement that there are seven accused persons namely Ravi, Deepak, Kapil @ Kapil Lehri, Ajay, Vijay, Ankit @ Ankit Pal and Sagar in the present FIR. He further stated that none of the accused persons has been declared Proclaimed offender not any proclamation proceedings are pending in present FIR against them. He further stated that no other criminal case /FIR is pending against accused persons.

It is accordingly submitted on the basis of statement given-by IO that there are seven accused namely Ravi, Deepak, Kapil @ Kapil Lehri, Ajay, Vijay, Ankit @ Ankit Pal and Sagar in this case and no accused is proclaimed offender. That no other case is registered against accused. That there is only one complainant/victim namely Mahadev in this case/FIR and complainant/victim as well as accused are party to the compromise in question.

On the basis of statements made by the parties appearing before me, the compromise on the face of it appears to be genuine one having been arrived at by the parties with free will without any pressure or coercion. There is nothing on the record to doubt the genuineness of the compromise so arrived at between the parties. Offences invoked in the present case are under Sections 341, 323, 506, 148, 149 & 201 of IPC.”

4. Learned counsel for respondent No.2 admits the fact of parties having compromised and states that he has no objection in case the FIR and all proceedings subsequent thereto against the petitioners are quashed.

5. Similarly, learned State counsel has stated no objection in case the FIR is quashed based upon the compromise (Annexure P-2).

6. I have heard learned Counsel for the parties and have carefully gone through the records of the case.

7. This Court and the Hon’ble Apex Court has repeatedly dealt with the issue of exercise of jurisdiction under Section 482 of the Code to quash proceeding in non-compoundable offences in the cases of Gian Singh vs. State of Punjab and another, 2012(10) SCC 303, Kulwinder Singh & others vs. State of Punjab & another, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 and Ram Gopal and another vs. State of Madhya Pradesh, 2021(4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 322 (Criminal Appeal No.1489 of 2012 decided on 29th of September, 2021). The proposition of law that emerges from the aforesaid decisions rendered by the Hon’ble Apex Court and this Court is :

- (a) Power u/s 482 Cr.P.C. vested with this Court is much wider and is unaffected by Section 320 of the Code.
- (b) However, wider the power greater the caution.
- (c) The underlining principle while exercising such power is that it can be invoked to quash the proceedings recognizing compromise between the parties in the matters which are overwhelmingly and predominantly of civil character like commercial transactions or arising out of matrimonial relationship or family disputes.

- (d) The said power is not to be exercised in the prosecutions involving heinous and serious offences of mental depravity or offences like murder, rape, dacoity etc. as such offences are not private in nature and have a serious impact on society.*
- (e) Section 482 Cr.P.C. casts duty upon the High Court to advance interest of justice as well. It is in recognition of this duty casted upon the High Court, that Apex Court held that the High Court would not refuse to quash FIR under Section 307 merely because FIR finds mention thereof. High Court can assess nature of injuries sustained, whether such injuries inflicted on vital/delicate parts of the body/nature of weapons used etc.*
- (f) Such exercise at the hands of High Court would be permissible only after the evidence is collected after investigation and chargesheet is filed/charges framed during the trial. Such exercise cannot be carried out while the matter is still under investigation.*
- (g) While quashing FIR in non-compoundable offences even which are of private in nature, High Court is required to consider antecedents of the accused, conduct of the accused and whether he was absconding or whether he has managed the complainant to enter into a compromise.*

8. Thus, keeping in view the aforesaid facts and circumstances, this Court is of the considered opinion that it is a fit case to exercise jurisdiction vested u/s 482 of Cr.P.C., to quash the FIR as :-

- (i) Putting a quietus to the proceedings will bring peace and tranquility amongst parties & will accordingly further the cause of substantial justice.
- (ii) The offences alleged are primarily of private nature.
- (iii) The parties have compromised.
- (iv) As per the report received the compromise is said to be voluntary in its nature.
- (v) Complainant/victim is reported to have entered into compromise on his own volition.

9. Consequently, the petition is allowed. FIR No.14 dated 08.03.2018 under Sections 341, 323, 506, 148, 149 of IPC, registered at Police Station Nayagaon, District SAS Nagar, Punjab and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise dated 25.07.2025 (Annexure P-2), are, hereby, quashed qua the petitioners.

10. Pending application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed off.
