Notice of motion.

At this stage, Mr. Tarun Aggarwal, Addl.AG, Haryana has put in appearance on behalf of respondent No.1-State of Haryana and accepts notice.

Mr. Aman Godara, Advocate has filed memorandum of appearance for respondent No.2. The same be taken on record. The parties are directed to

(iii) Whether any accused has been declared Proclaimed Offender?

The report be submitted before this Court before the next date of hearing i.e. 28.08.2025.”

3. Pursuant to the aforesaid order, report dated 14.08.2025 from Judicial Magistrate Ist Class, Hisar has been received, which is taken on record. As per the report, the Trial Court has recorded as follows:-

“(i) As per the statement of investigation officer ASI Sandeep Kumar, there are two accused namely Amber alias Monty son of Ran Singh and Randeep Roperia son of Rajender Parsad implicated in the present case and as per records they have never declared as proclaimed offender/person in the present case.

(ii) There is only one aggrieved complainant named Raghav Kajal son of Surender Kajal in the present case. He has appeared and has made his statement in support of the compromise. After careful perusal of the statements given on solemn affirmation by the complainant as well as that of both the accused, this court is satisfied that the complainant as well as both the accused have compromised the matter between them voluntarily and without any threat, pressure or coercion and out of their free will. The compromise as per their statements is a genuine compromise. Copies of statements of complainant, joint statement of accused persons and investigating officer are being sent herewith for your kind perusal and further worthy consideration please.”

4. Learned counsel for respondent No.2 admits the fact of parties having compromised and states that he has no objection in case the FIR and all proceedings subsequent thereto against the petitioners are quashed.

5. Similarly, learned State counsel has stated no objection in case the FIR is quashed based upon the compromise (Annexure P-2).

6. I have heard learned Counsel for the parties and have carefully gone through the records of the case.

7. This Court and the Hon'ble Apex Court has repeatedly dealt with the issue of exercise of jurisdiction under Section 482 of the Code to quash proceeding in non-compoundable offences in the cases of Gian Singh vs. State of Punjab and another, 2012(10) SCC 303, Kulwinder Singh & others vs. State of Punjab & another, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 and Ram Gopal and another vs. State of Madhya Pradesh, 2021(4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 322 (Criminal Appeal No.1489 of 2012 decided on 29th of September, 2021). The proposition of law that emerges from the aforesaid decisions rendered by the Hon'ble Apex Court and this Court is :

- (a) Power u/s 482 Cr.P.C. vested with this Court is much wider and is unaffected by Section 320 of the Code.
- (b) However, wider the power greater the caution.
- (c) The underlining principle while exercising such power is that it can be invoked to quash the proceedings recognizing compromise between the parties in the matters which are overwhelmingly and predominantly of civil character like commercial transactions or arising out of matrimonial relationship or family disputes.

- (d) The said power is not to be exercised in the prosecutions involving heinous and serious offences of mental depravity or offences like murder, rape, dacoity etc. as such offences are not private in nature and have a serious impact on society.
- (e) Section 482 Cr.P.C. casts duty upon the High Court to advance interest of justice as well. It is in recognition of this duty casted upon the High Court, that Apex Court held that the High Court would not refuse to quash FIR under Section 307 merely because FIR finds mention thereof. High Court can assess nature of injuries sustained, whether such injuries inflicted on vital/delicate parts of the body/nature of weapons used etc.
- (f) Such exercise at the hands of High Court would be permissible only after the evidence is collected after investigation and chargesheet is filed/charges framed during the trial. Such exercise cannot be carried out while the matter is still under investigation.
- (g) While quashing FIR in non-compoundable offences even which are of private in nature, High Court is required to consider antecedents of the accused, conduct of the accused and whether he was absconding or whether he has managed the complainant to enter into a compromise.

The statutory provision of Section 528 of BNSS, 2023 is same as the statutory provision of Section 482 of Cr.P.C., 1973. Therefore, the above said principles of law would apply to a petition under Section 528 of BNSS, 2023 as well.

8. Thus, keeping in view the aforesaid facts and circumstances, this Court is of the considered opinion that it is a fit case to exercise jurisdiction vested u/s 528 of BNSS,2023 to quash the FIR as :-

- (i) Putting a quietus to the proceedings will bring peace and tranquility amongst parties & will accordingly further the cause of substantial justice.
- (ii) The offences alleged are primarily of private nature.
- (iii) The parties have compromised.
- (iv) As per the report received the compromise is said to be voluntary in its nature.
- (v) Complainant/victim is reported to have entered into compromise on his own volition.

9. Consequently, the petition is allowed. FIR No.438 dated 28.07.2023 under Sections 323, 34, 427 and 506 (and Section 325 added later through Challan) of IPC, 1860 registered at Police Station Civil Lines, District Hisar and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise dated 29.07.2025 (Annexure P-2), are, hereby, quashed qua the petitioners.

10. Pending application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed off.
