3. Pursuant to the aforesaid order, report dated 16.10.2025 from Judicial Magistrate, Ist Class, Baba Bakala Sahib, District Amritsar, has been received, which is taken on record. As per the report, the Trial Court has recorded as follows:-

“In compliance of the said order, the accused/petitioner Suresh Kumar Jhamb and complainant/respondent, Rajwant Kaur (through VC) appeared and suffered their respective statements that the matter in question has been compromised with the due intervention of respectable. The complainant/respondent Rajwant Kaur pleaded no objection if the FIR in question is quashed. The petitioner has also deposited cost of Rs.20,000/- with the High Court Lawyers Welfare Fund and the deposit receipt is also annexed herewith. It is respectfully submitted that from the statements of the parties, this Court is of the considered opinion that compromise Mark A effected between complainant/victim Rajwant Kaur and accused namely Suresh Kumar Jhamb is genuine and it is effected voluntarily without any pressure, coercion or undue influence from any quarter. Hence, para wise report is as under:

1 & 3. It is respectfully submitted that from the statement of the IO, it is reflected that there is only one person arrayed as accused in the FIR namely Suresh Kumar Jhamb and he has not been declared PO in the case.

2. It is respectfully submitted that from the statement of IO, Rajwant Kaur is the only complainant, victim in the present FIR and there is no other victim in present case. The only complainant/victim is arrayed as respondent in petition before Hon'ble High Court."

4. Learned counsel for respondent No.2 admits the factum of parties having compromised and states that he has no objection in case the impugned FIR is quashed.

5. Similarly, learned State counsel has stated that he has no objection in case the impugned FIR is quashed as the parties have compromised the matter amicably.

6. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and have carefully gone through the records of the case.

7. This Court and Apex Court has repeatedly dealt with the issue of exercise of jurisdiction under Section 482 of the Code to quash proceeding in non-compoundable offences in the cases of Gian Singh vs. State of Punjab and another, 2012 (10) SCC 303, Kulwinder Singh & others vs. State of Punjab & another, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 and Ram Gopal and another vs. State of Madhya Pradesh, 2021 (4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 322 (Criminal Appeal No.1489 of 2012 decided on 29th of September, 2021). The proposition of law that emerges from the aforesaid decisions rendered by Apex Court and this Court is:

(a) Power u/s 482 Cr.P.C. vested with this Court is much wider and is unaffected by Section 320 of the Code.

(b) However, wider the power greater the caution.

(c) The underlining principle while exercising such power is that it can be invoked to quash the proceedings recognizing compromise between the parties in the matters which are overwhelmingly and predominantly of civil character like commercial transactions or arising out of matrimonial relationship or family disputes.

(d) The said power is not to be exercised in the prosecutions involving heinous and serious offences of mental depravity or offences like murder, rape, dacoity etc. as such offences are not private in nature and have a serious impact on society.

(e) Section 482 Cr.P.C. casts duty upon the High Court to advance interest of justice as well. It is in recognition of this duty casted upon the High Court, that Apex Court held that the High Court would not refuse to quash FIR under Section 307 merely because FIR finds mention thereof. High Court can assess nature of injuries sustained, whether such injuries inflicted on vital/delicate parts of the body/nature of weapons used etc.

(f) Such exercise at the hands of High Court would be permissible only after the evidence is collected after investigation and charge-sheet is filed/ charges framed during the trial. Such exercise cannot be carried out while the matter is still under investigation.

(g) While quashing FIR in non-compoundable offences even which are private in nature, High Court is required to consider antecedents of the accused, conduct of the accused and whether he was absconding or whether he has managed the complainant to enter into a compromise.

8 Thus, keeping in view the aforesaid facts and circumstances, this Court is of the considered opinion that it is a fit case to exercise jurisdiction vested u/s 482 Cr.P.C. to quash the FIR as :-

(i) Putting a quietus to the proceedings will bring peace and tranquility amongst parties & will accordingly further the cause of substantial justice.

(ii) The offences alleged are primarily of private nature.

(iii) The parties have compromised.

(iv) As per the report received the compromise is said to be voluntary in its nature.

(v) Complainant/victim is reported to have entered into compromise on his own volition.

9 Consequently, the petition is allowed. FIR No.107 dated 25.09.2019, under Sections 420 IPC, 13 Punjab Travel Professionals Regulation Act 2014, registered at Police Station Khilchiyan (Amritsar Rural), Punjab and all consequent proceedings arising therefrom are, hereby, quashed qua the petitioner.

10. Photocopy of this order be placed on the connected case file.

11. Pending application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed off.
