The present civil writ petition has been filed under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India for issuance of order, directing respondents to re-fix the pension of the petitioners and all consequential benefits including arrear along with interest at the rate of 18% per annum.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that he would be satisfied if the legal notice of the petitioners is decided by the respondents by passing a speaking order in a time bound manner.

Learned State counsel appearing on receipt of advance notice submits that he has no objection in case a direction is issued to the respondents for time bound consideration and decision of the legal notice of the petitioners by passing a speaking order.

Therefore, in view of the limited prayer made by counsel for the petitioners, the respondents are directed to consider the legal notice (Annexure P-6) of the petitioners and pass a speaking order after affording them an opportunity to be heard, within a period of three months from the date of receiving a certified copy of this order. Further, the decision taken thereof shall be conveyed to the petitioners. Needless to say, if the petitioners are found entitled to the relief sought, the same shall be granted forthwith by the respondents.
