Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners have been falsely implicated in the present case. Infact, the incident did not occur as projected by the complainant. It was he (complainant) who on 18.07.2025 initiated the fight by deliberately hitting the parked vehicle of petitioner No.3 and thereafter abused and assaulted him. Police authorities were intimated about this incident with a request to initiate appropriate proceedings but no action was taken. On 19.07.2025, as well, complainant arrived in a drunkard state and provoked yet another quarrel. In the said incident, petitioner No.3 also suffered serious injuries.

Continuing further learned counsel submits that all the injuries suffered by the complainant are simple in nature, however, in the FIR an exaggerated version has been put up. Infact, petitioner No.2 was not even named in the FIR. Further, the only role attributed to petitioner No.1 and 3 is that they were armed with 'dandas/bindas'. During investigation, the allegations of the complainant that petitioners and other accused were carrying arms were found to be false and resultantly Section 25 of Arms Act was deleted. Learned counsel further submits that the petitioners are willing to join investigation as and when called for by the Investigating Officer.
