

225 IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB & HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

RSA-146-2018 (O&M)

Date of order: 11.12.2025

Dilbagh Singh

....Appellant

Versus

Harjit Singh and another

....Respondents

BEFORE: HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE NIDHI GUPTA

Present:- None.

Nidhi Gupta, J. (Oral)

1. The appellant has filed the present appeal against the concurrent findings of the learned Courts below whereby the suit filed by the appellant/plaintiff for decree of possession, decree of declaration and mandatory injunction was dismissed.
2. The matter pertains to the year 2018. On 09.08.2018, a Co-ordinate Bench issued notice in the application seeking condonation of 219 days' delay in filing the appeal. However, notice in the main appeal is yet to be issued.
3. On the last date of hearing, none had appeared on behalf of the appellant and Registry was directed to inform learned counsel for the appellant about the date fixed.

4. As per office report, counsel for the appellant has been duly informed through email. However, today despite the case having been called out twice, none appears on behalf of the appellant.

5. A bare reading of the above facts shows that the appellant has exhibited an utterly casual attitude in the pursuit of the present litigation. It is to be appreciated that very valuable public time of the Court has been expended in affording opportunities to the appellant in the interest of justice. On the other hand, the appellant has adopted an utterly casual and careless approach. It is clear that neither the appellant nor his counsel are seriously interested in pursuing the present matter. Thus, this Court is left with no other option except to dismiss the same for non-prosecution.

6. Ordered accordingly.

7. Pending application(s), if any, shall stands disposed of.
