Pardeep ...Petitioner

Versus

State of Haryana ...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANOOP CHITKARA

Present: Mr. R.K.Lathwal, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Atul Gaur, AAG, Haryana.

ANOOP CHITKARA, J.

FIR No.	Dated	Police Station	Sections
47	18.02.2024	IMT, Rohtak	406 IPC (Sections 407/420/465/ 467/468/471/483/120-B/201 IPC added later on)

1. The petitioner incarcerated in the FIR captioned above had come up before this Court under Section 483 of Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023, [BNSS], seeking regular bail.

2. Per paragraph 18 of the bail application and 11 of the reply dated 04.09.2025 filed by the State, the accused has the following criminal antecedents:

Sr. No.	FIR No.	Date	Offenses	Police Station
1	786	11.10.2015	302/201/392/414/34 IPC and Section 25 of Arms Act	Civil Lines, Karnal
2	109	2020	42 of Prisons Act	Ram Nagar, Karnal

3. The facts and allegations are being taken from the reply filed by the State, which reads as follows:

“2. That the facts of the case are that a complaint has been moved by complainant Ashok son of Raja Ram, resident of Village Boliya, Tehsil Gharoth, District Mansor, Madhya Pradesh alleging therein that he is working as Clerk/Munshi in Diwakar Trading Company situated at Boliya. On 16.02.2024, the owner of the company had demanded a truck from Jal Bhawani Roadlines Mansor Transport, upon which, Jai Bhagwan Roadlines had sent a truck bearing No. UP-31-AT-7576. The owner of the said truck was Deepak son of Baljeet, resident of H.No. 1468, Himtana Pana Mundiana, District Sonapat and driver of the truck was Sunil son of Suresh Kumar, resident of Ward No.5, Rohtak. The owner and driver of the aforesaid truck came to the company and owner of the company got loaded 30 tones 40 kilograms of mustard crop amounting to Rs. 15 lakhs in the said truck and he was sent by the company to Bhiwani with the truck. On 17.02.2024, at about 10.30 p.m., when they reached Outer Bypass Delhi Road, Rohtak then owner of the truck namely Deepak on the pretext of drinking tea or water, he took him off the truck, put him in an auto and took him to Delhi bypass and asked him to reach where the truck was standing. When he reached where he took him off the truck, he found the truck missing. He searched the truck at his own level but did not find. Thereafter, he called the owner of the truck through his mobile phone but the mobile phone was found switched off. The complainant prayed to take appropriate action against the culprits. On the basis of aforesaid complaint, a case vide FIR No.47 dated 18/2/2024 U/s 406 IPC was registered at P.S.-IMT, Rohtak.”

4. The petitioner's counsel prays for bail by imposing any stringent conditions and contends that further pre-trial incarceration would cause an irreversible injustice to the petitioner and their family.

5. The petitioner's counsel submits that the petitioner would have no objection whatsoever to any stringent conditions that this Court may impose, including that if the petitioner repeats the offense or commits any non-bailable offense which provides for a sentence of imprisonment for more than seven years, the State may file an application to revoke this bail before the concerned Court having jurisdiction over this FIR, which shall have the authority to cancel this bail, and may do so at their discretion, to which the petitioner shall have no objection.

6. The State's counsel opposes bail and refers to the reply.

7. It would be appropriate to refer to para 10 of the reply, which read as follows:

“10. That the specific role of the petitioner is that he provide the forged documents to co-accused and on the basis of which the accused were using the truck in question. The petitioner also helped the accused persons in selling the stolen mustard in grain market. The petitioner was actively involved in whole criminal conspiracy and he has taken away the driver of truck with him for taking tea and during this period the co-accused have stolen the truck loaded with mustard. The disclosure statement of petitioner is attached herewith as Annexure-R1.”

8. There is sufficient prima facie evidence connecting the petitioner with the alleged crime. However, pre-trial incarceration should not be a replica of post-conviction sentencing.

9. Per paragraph 16 of the bail petition, the petitioner has been in custody since 11.03.2024. Per the custody certificate dated 09.09.2025, the petitioner's total custody in this FIR is 01 year, 05 months and 25 days.

10. The law of bail, like any other branch of law, has its own philosophy, and occupies an important place in the administration of justice and the concept of bail emerges from the conflict between the police power to restrict liberty of a man who is alleged to have committed a crime, and presumption of innocence in favour of the alleged criminal.¹In deciding bail applications an important factor which should certainly be taken into consideration by the Court is the delay in concluding the trial.—Often this takes several years, and if the accused is denied bail but is ultimately acquitted, who will restore so many years of his life spent in custody? —Is Article 21 of the Constitution, which is the most basic of all the fundamental rights in our Constitution, not violated in such a case? —Of course this is not the only factor, but it is certainly one of the important factors in deciding whether to grant bail.² Personal liberty is a very precious fundamental right and it should be curtailed only when it becomes imperative according to the peculiar facts and circumstances of the case.³ Personal liberty deprived when bail is refused, is too precious a value of our constitutional system recognised under Art. 21 that the curial power to negate it is a great trust exercisable, not casually, but judicially with lively concern for the cost to the individual and the community.⁴ When the undertrial prisoners are detained in jail custody to an indefinite period, Article 21 of the Constitution is violated.⁵

11. Given the above, the penal provisions invoked viz-a-viz pre-trial custody, coupled with the prima facie analysis of the nature of allegations, and the other factors peculiar to this case, there would be no justifiability for further pre-trial incarceration at this stage.

12. Without commenting on the case's merits, in the facts and circumstances peculiar to this case, and for the reasons mentioned above, the petitioner makes a case for bail. This order shall come into force from the time it is uploaded on this Court's official webpage.

13. Given the above, provided the petitioner is not required in any other case, the petitioner shall be released on bail in the FIR captioned above, subject to furnishing bonds to the satisfaction of the concerned Court and due to unavailability before any nearest Ilaqa Magistrate or duty Magistrate, with or without sureties, with a maximum bond amount not to exceed INR 10,000.

14. Before accepting the surety, the concerned Court must be satisfied that if the accused fails to appear, the surety is capable of producing the accused. However, instead of surety, the petitioner may provide a fixed deposit of INR 10,000/-, with a clause that the interest shall not be accumulated in FD, either drawn from a State-owned bank or any bank listed on the National Stock Exchange and/or Bombay Stock Exchange, in favour of the “Chief Judicial Magistrate” of the concerned Sessions Division; or a fixed deposit made in the name of the petitioner, with similar terms and with endorsement from the banker stating that the FD shall not be encumbered or redeemed without the permission of the concerned trial Court, or until the surety bond has been discharged.

15. While furnishing a personal bond, the petitioner shall mention the following personal identification details:

1.	AADHAR number
2.	Passport number (If available) and when the attesting officer/court considers it appropriate or considers the accused a flight risk.
3.	Mobile number (If available)
4.	E-Mail id (If available)

16. This order is subject to the petitioner’s complying with the following terms.

17. The petitioner shall abide by all statutory bond conditions and appear before the concerned Court(s) on all dates. The petitioner shall not tamper with the evidence, influence, browbeat, pressurize, induce, threaten, or promise, directly or indirectly, any witnesses, Police officials, or any other person acquainted with the facts and circumstances of the case, or dissuade them from disclosing such facts to the Police or the Court.

18. The significant consideration for granting bail is that the Court aims to give the petitioner another chance to course-correct, reform, and reintegrate into the community as an ideal citizen. To ensure that the petitioner also abides by the assurance made on the petitioner’s behalf by not repeating the offence or indulging in any crime, it shall be desirable to impose the following additional condition.

19. This bail is conditional, with the foundational condition being that if the petitioner repeats the offense or commits any non-bailable offense which provides for a sentence of imprisonment for more than seven years, the State shall file an application to revoke this bail before the concerned Court having jurisdiction over this FIR, which shall have the authority to cancel this bail, and as per their discretion, they may cancel this bail.

20. Any observation made hereinabove is neither an expression of opinion on the case's merits nor shall the trial Court advert to these comments.

21. In Amit Rana v. State of Haryana, CRM-18469-2025 [Decided on 05.08.2025], in CRA-D-123-2020], a Division Bench of Punjab and Haryana High Court in paragraph 13, holds that “To ensure that every person in judicial custody who has been granted bail or whose sentence has been suspended gets back their liberty without any delay, it is appropriate that whenever the bail order or the orders of suspension of sentence are not immediately sent by the Registry, computer systems, or Public Prosecutor, then in such a situation, to facilitate the immediate restoration of the liberty granted by any Court, the downloaded copies of all such orders, subject to verification, must be accepted by the Court before whom the bail bonds are furnished.”

22. Petition allowed in terms mentioned above. All pending applications, if any, stand disposed of.
