CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE YASHVIR SINGH RATHOR

Present : Ms. Harnaaz Kaur, Advocate and Mr. Yash Goyal, Advocate for the petitioner in CRM-M-45415-2025.

Mr. Ashok Giri, Advocate
for the petitioner in CRM-M-52711-2025.

Mr. Gorav Kathuria, DAG Punjab.

YASHVIR SINGH RATHOR. J.(Oral)

1.

This order shall dispose of above noted two petitions, as the same have emanated out of the same occurrence.
2.

Present petitions under Section 483 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 have been filed for grant of regular bail to the petitioners in case FIR No.113 dated 30.07.2024, under Section 21(c), 25 of NDPS Act, registered at Police Station STF, SAS Nagar (Mohali), Punjab.

3. Brief facts of the prosecution case are that ASI Amandeep Singh along with other police officials was on patrolling duty and was present near Curo Mall, Jalandhar, when he received a secret information that Sahil, s/o Sukhdev and his companion Rajbir Singh @ Raja, who are engaged in the business of selling heroin are present in front of Curo Mall in their Swift Car bearing No.PH-08-ER-1292 and in case a raid is conducted, huge quantity of heroin can be recovered. After completing necessary formalities, a raid was conducted and the police party apprehended them at the spot. On asking, driver of the car disclosed his name as Sahil and the person sitting on the passenger seat disclosed his name as Rajbir Singh @ Raja. Upon search of the said vehicle, 353 grams of heroin was recovered. The contraband was taken into possession. Petitioner- Rajbir Singh @ Raja was arrested. During investigation, it was found that the aforesaid vehicle belongs to petitioner- Sukhdev and thereafter, he was arrayed as an accused in the present FIR and he was arrested on 18.04.2025. After completion of investigation, challan has been presented against the accused for trial.

3. I have heard learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned State counsel and have gone through the record.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioners contended that the petitioners have been falsely implicated. Learned counsel next contended that the petitioners- Sukhdev and Rajveer Singh Shergill @ Rajbir Singh @ Raja are in custody since 18.04.2025 and 30.07.2024 respectively and after completion of investigation, challan has been presented. Thereafter, charge has been framed on 29.03.2025. However, the case is still at the stage of prosecution evidence and trial has not been concluded and conclusion of the trial is likely to take a long time. Learned counsel further contended that in view of their long incarceration, petitioners are entitled to be released on bail, as prolonged incarceration, generally militates against the most precious fundamental right guaranteed under Article 21 of the Constitution and the conditional liberty must override the statutory embargo created under Section 37 of the NDPS Act. In support of his contention, learned counsel for the petitioner has relied upon judgments passed in CRM-M-21794 of 2023 – Sandeep Singh v. State of Punjab decided on 05.05.2023, CRR-1785 of 2018 (O&M)- Vicky Kaur v. State of Punjab, decided on 13.08.2018, CRM-M-14029 of 2018 Kamlesh v. State of Punjab, decided on 06.05.2015, CRM-M-17321 of 2025 Jassu Ram @ Jasuram v. State of Punjab, decided on 04.04.2025 and a judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court in Special Leave to Appeal (Crl.) No. (s).12788/2023 – Nandalal Mondal @ Abhay Mondal v. The State of West Bengal, judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court passed in Criminal Appeal No.4883/2025 - Santosh Pawar Vs. State of Chhattisgarh & Anr. decided on 14.11.2025 and (2022) 10 SCC 52, Satender Kumar Antil Vs. Central Bureau of Investigation.

5. On the other hand, learned State Counsel has opposed the bail and argued that the petitioners have committed a heinous crime. Petitioner Rajbir Singh @ Raja was found in possession of 353 grams of heroin (commercial quantity), and the ownership of the said vehicle in which the contraband was recovered belongs to petitioner Sukhdev and in view of the rigours contained in the statutory provisions of Section 37 of the NDPS Act, they are not entitled to the benefit of bail.

6. Hon'ble Supreme Court in 2023 Live Law (SC) 533, Rabi Prakash

v. State of Odisha has held that prolonged incarceration, generally militates against the most precious fundamental right guaranteed under Article 21 of the Constitution and in such a situation, the conditional liberty must override the statutory embargo created under Section 37 of the NDPS Act. To the same effect is the law laid down by Hon'ble Supreme Court in 2024 (4) RCR (Criminal) 172, Ankur Chaudhary v. State of Madhya Pradesh 2023 AIR(SC) 1648, Mohammad Muslim alias Hussain v. State (NCT of Delhi) in which Hon'ble Supreme Court while granting regular bail to an accused, from whom commercial quantity of contraband was recovered, has held that grant of bail on the ground of undue delay in trial cannot be said to be fettered by Section 37 of the NDPS Act. A co-ordinate Bench of this Court has also held so in judgment reported as Law Finder Doc Id #2770222 Garpawandeep Singh alias Bihari v. State of Punjab decided vide judgment dated 27.08.2025 passed in CRM-M-19408 of 2025 wherein 260 grams of heroin was allegedly recovered. Hon'ble Supreme Court in Special Leave to Appeal (Criminal) No.12788/2023 titled Nandalal Mondal alias Abhay Mondal v. The State of West Bengal, vide judgment dated 03.01.2024 while taking into consideration the period of custody already undergone by the petitioner/under- trial, the fact that he does not have any criminal antecedents and also keeping in view the prolonged incarceration, ordered release of the petitioner on bail who was found in possession of 10,000 ml of codeine phosphate - a cough syrup which falls within the commercial quantity. Hon'ble Supreme Court in Criminal Appeal No.4883/2025 titled Santosh Pawar Vs. State of Chhattisgarh & Anr. (supra), has held that appellant who was being prosecuted for being in possession of commercial quantity of narcotic substance was entitled for bail in view of her incarceration for a period of 19 months. In Satender Kumar Antil's case (supra), prolonged incarceration and inordinate delay engaged the attention of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, which considered the correct approach towards bail, with respect to several enactments, including Section 37 of NDPS Act. The Court expressed the opinion that Section 436A of Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 (which requires inter alia the accused to be enlarged on bail if the trial is not concluded within specified periods) would apply.

7. In the present case also, petitioner-Rajbir Singh @ Raja was found in possession of 353 grams of heroin which falls within commercial quantity and the ownership of the said vehicle in which the contraband was recovered belongs to petitioner Sukhdev. Petitioners are in custody since 18.04.2025 and 30.07.2024 respectively and after completion of investigation, challan has already been presented but the same has not been concluded till date and there is also no likelihood of the same being concluded soon. As such, the conditional liberty must override the statutory embargo created under Section 37 of the NDPS Act and grant of bail on the ground of undue delay in trial cannot be said to be fettered by Section 37 of the NDPS Act. Therefore, taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the present case and also the ratio of law laid down in aforementioned case laws, I am of the opinion that no useful purpose will be served by keeping the petitioner in custody and resultantly, the present petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his furnishing bail bond and surety bond to the satisfaction of learned Trial Court/Duty Magistrate concerned, on usual terms and conditions. However, in addition to the terms and conditions that may be imposed by the trial Court/Duty Magistrate concerned, petitioner shall remain bound by the following conditions:-

- (i) Petitioner shall not misuse the concession of bail granted to him.
- (ii) Petitioner shall not tamper with any evidence, oral or documentary during the trial.
- (iii) Petitioner shall regularly appear before the trial Court and he will not commit any offence of similar nature while on bail.
- (iv) Petitioner shall deposit his passport, if any, with the trial Court.
- (v) Petitioner shall not in any manner delay the trial.

8. In case of breach of any of the aforesaid conditions or the conditions that may be imposed by the trial Court or upon any other sufficient cause, the State shall be at liberty to apply for cancellation of bail.
