....Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AMAN CHAUDHARY

Present : Mr. L.S. Virk, Advocate for the petitioner

Mr. Manipal Singh Atwal, DAG Punjab

AMAN CHAUDHARY, J. (ORAL)

1. Prayer in the present petition filed under Section 483 BNSS is for grant of regular bail to the petitioner in case FIR No.75 dated 27.04.2025, registered under Sections 18 of NDPS Act and 52-A of Prisons Act, (Sections 18, 21, 27, 27A, 29/61/85 of NDPS Act and 25/54/59 of Amrs Act added later on) at Police Station City-I, Sangrur, District Sangrur.

2. Learned counsel contends that the petitioner has been in custody for about 7 months. He alleges false implication. His name surfaced on the disclosure statement of co-accused Gurchet Singh, who has since been granted regular bail by this Court vide order dated 17.11.2025, after being in custody for 6 months and 2 days and had 10 cases against him, besides one Banso Bai on 17.11.2025 and Prasant Majumdar by order of even date. No recovery has been effected from the petitioner. Challan was presented on 06.10.2025 and the charges have not been framed and total 46 prosecution witnesses have been cited. The petitioner is involved in 1 more case under NDPS

Act. Reliance is placed on the judgment passed by Hon'ble The Supreme Court titled as Maulana Mohd. Amir Rashadi vs. State of U.P. and others, 2012(2) SCC 382.

3. Status report along with custody certificate dated 02.12.2025, filed by the learned State counsel are taken on record. As per the same, the petitioner is behind bars for 6 months and 18 days.

4. Learned State counsel opposes the bail on the ground that the petitioner is the main accused, who along with other co-accused, used to facilitate the supply of mobile and contraband to the jail inmates. However, he is unable to controvert the submissions with regard to stage and co-accused having been granted bail.

5. Heard.

6. Hon'ble The Supreme Court in the case of Maulana Mohd. Amir Rashadi (Supra) had held that, "As observed by the High Court, merely on the basis of criminal antecedents, the claim of the second respondent cannot be rejected. In other words, it is the duty of the Court to find out the role of the accused in the case in which he has been charged and other circumstances such as possibility of fleeing away from the jurisdiction of the Court, etc."

7. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, in particular that the petitioner is in custody for the last 6 months and 18 days; co-accused are on bail; challan stands presented on 06.10.2025, however, charges are yet to be framed and there are a total of 46 prosecution witnesses, the trial is likely to take a considerable time, further incarceration of the petitioner would be violative of his right enshrined under Article 21 of the Constitution of India, the present petition is allowed.

8. The petitioner is ordered to be released on regular bail, subject to furnishing bail/surety bonds to the satisfaction of trial Court/Duty Magistrate concerned, if not required in any other case and shall abide by the following conditions:-

- (i) The petitioner will not tamper with the evidence during the trial.
- (ii) The petitioner will not pressurize/ intimidate the prosecution witnesses.
- (iii) The petitioner will appear before the trial Court on each and every date fixed, unless is exempted by a specific order of Court.
- (iv) The petitioner shall not commit an offence similar to the offence of which, he is an accused, or for commission of which he is suspected of.
- (v) The petitioner shall not directly or indirectly coerce, induce, threaten or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him/ her from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer or tamper with the evidence in any manner.
- (vi) The petitioner shall not in any manner misuse his liberty.
- (vii) The petitioner shall furnish his address and mobile number by way of an affidavit to the trial Court and not change the same till conclusion of trial and if for any reasons, he seeks to change either of the aforesaid, it shall be done only with prior information to the learned trial Court.
- (viii) The petitioner shall not leave the country without prior permission of the trial Court.
- (ix) The trial Court/Duty Magistrate may impose any other condition, as deemed appropriate while releasing the petitioner.

9. It is made abundantly clear that in case there is any breach of the aforesaid conditions, the State shall be at liberty to seek cancellation of bail as granted to the petitioner by this order.

10. In view of the above, it is clarified that the observations made herein above are limited for the purpose of present proceedings and would not be construed as any opinion on the merits of the case and the trial would proceed independently of the aforesaid observations.
