Present: None for the petitioners.

MANJARI NEHRU KAUL, J. (ORAL)

On the last date of hearing i.e. 10.12.2024, the following order was passed:-

“Case has been called twice. However, even on second call, none has entered appearance on behalf of the petitioners.

The instant petition was filed way back on 04.10.2023 for quashing of the FIR. Although, the parties claimed to have amicably settled their dispute by way of a compromise (Annexure P-2), however, in view of the serious allegations levelled against the petitioners of having inflicted multiple grievous injuries including injuries on the head of respondent No.3 with datar, learned State counsel had opposed the said prayer. Thereafter, learned counsel for the petitioners had prayed for an adjournment to make their submissions that even in the case of heinous offences like the one at hand, the FIR in question could be quashed on the basis of a compromise.

Purely in the interest of justice, adjourned to 17.01.2025.

It is made clear that no further adjournment shall be granted.”

CRM-M-53933-2023

Today also, the case has been called twice, however, none has entered appearance on behalf of the petitioners.

In the light of aforementioned order dated 10.12.2024, present petition stands dismissed for non-prosecution.
