...Petitioner

Vs.

Jaswant Singh

...Respondent

CORAM:- HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANIL KSHETARPAL

Present: Mr. Navjot Singh, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Vijay Rana, Advocate for the respondent.

ANIL KSHETARPAL, J. (Oral)

1. Learned counsel representing the respondent has submitted that interim order has been obtained from this Court by making mis-statement.
2. It is evident that notice of motion was ordered to be issued on 15.11.2019. Thereafter, the hearing of the case was adjourned either due to the absence of the counsel representing the petitioner or on the request of the petitioner's counsel. On 15.05.2025, the following order was passed:-

"Learned counsel representing the petitioner is directed to produce the receipts evidencing payment of Rs.4,75,000/- as per her statement on 15.11.2019.

List, in the urgent list, on 21.05.2025."

3. On 21.05.2025, again, on the request of the petitioner's counsel, the hearing of the case was adjourned.
4. Today, learned counsel representing the petitioner submits that the petitioner is not responding to his telephone calls.

5. Keeping in view the aforesaid facts, the revision petition is dismissed for non-prosecution.

6. All the pending miscellaneous applications, if any, are also disposed of.
