CRM-M-54304-2023

1. Counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner and counsel appearing on behalf of the complainant are ad idem that matter has been settled amicably in the mediation proceedings and they produced copy of the compromise/settlement dated 22.01.2025.
2. Counsel for the complainant further submits that as matter has been compromised, he is having no objection, if the present petition is allowed and the petitioner is granted regular bail.
3. As per the custody certificate, the petitioner remained in custody for a period of 3 months 11 days and only thereafter she was given concession of interim bail vide order dated 08.11.2023. The petitioner has not misused the said concession of interim bail in any manner. The police has already presented challan on completion of investigation. In the given circumstances, no gainful purpose is going to be served in case the petitioner is again sent to the custody.
4. In light of the above, without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, the present petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on regular bail subject to her furnishing bail bonds/surety bonds to the satisfaction of the trial Court/Chief Judicial Magistrate/Duty Magistrate concerned.
