2. Learned counsel contends that the petitioner has been in custody for about 4 months. He allegedly impersonated Jodha Singh and the Namberbar, who identified him, has been granted anticipatory bail by this Court vide order dated 28.11.2024, Annexure P-3. Challan has been presented on 26.06.2025, however, the charges have not been framed. In all there are 26 prosecution witnesses. The petitioner is involved in 1 more case under IPC, wherein he is on bail. Reliance is placed on the judgment passed by Hon'ble The Supreme Court titled as Maulana Mohd. Amir Rashadi vs. State of U.P. and others, 2012(2) SCC 382.

3. The custody certificate dated 03.09.2025, filed by the learned State counsel is taken on record. As per the same, the petitioner is behind bars for 3 months and 28 days.

4. Learned State counsel opposes the bail on the ground that there are serious allegations levelled against the petitioner of representing him as Jodha Singh. However, he is unable to controvert the submissions with regard to stage of the case, co-accused having been granted anticipatory bail and the petitioner being on bail in other case.

5. Heard.

6. Hon'ble The Supreme Court in the case of Maulana Mohd. Amir Rashadi (Supra) had held that, "As observed by the High Court, merely on the basis of criminal antecedents, the claim of the second respondent cannot be rejected. 7. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, in particular that the petitioner is in custody for the last 3 months and 28 days; on bail in other case; co-accused has been granted anticipatory bail; challan stands presented on 26.06.2025, however, the charges are yet to be framed and there are 26 prosecution witnesses in all, the trial is likely to take a considerable time, further incarceration of the petitioner would be violative of his right enshrined under Article 21 of the Constitution of India, the present petition is allowed.

8. The petitioner is ordered to be released on regular bail, subject to furnishing bail/surety bonds to the satisfaction of trial Court/Duty Magistrate concerned, if not required in any other case and shall abide by the following conditions:-
