The present appeal has been filed by the appellant-claimant, for seeking enhancement of the compensation awarded by learned Tribunal, on account of injuries sustained by him, in a motor vehicular accident, which took place on 11.01.2017.

Perusal of the impugned Award reveals that appellant-injured was 17 years old, at the time of accident and considering the evidence brought on record, learned Tribunal had awarded compensation, as reproduced in tabular form in paragraph No.31 of the Award, which is as herein given:-

1.	On account of expenses on medicines including	Rs.20,000/-
----	---	-------------

	expenditure incurred on transporation and diet
2.	On account of loss of income during the treatment period. (Claimant remained admitted in PGIMS, Rohtak w.e.f. 11.1.2017 to 12.1.2017 and thereafter, from 15.3.2017 to 18.3.2017.)Income considered as Rs.8000/- per month as labourer and granted for the period of two months	Rs.15,000/-
3.	On account of pain and suffering	Rs.15,000/-
	Total	Rs.50,000/-

Learned counsel for the appellant submits that appellant would be satisfied, if an amount of Rs.50,000/- is further awarded, as full and final settlement, over and above the awarded amount.

The offer so made, is acceptable to counsel for respondent No.3 and has agreed that respondent No.3-National Insurance Company Limited shall pay an amount of Rs.50,000/-, over and above the awarded amount.

Considering the amicable settlement, so reached between the parties, the present appeal is hereby allowed.
