activity. After completion of investigation, challan has already been presented against him and custody of the petitioner will not serve any meaningful purpose.

3. On the other hand, learned State counsel assisted by learned counsel for the complainant have vehemently opposed the submissions made by learned counsel for the petitioner on the ground that serious allegations have been levelled against the present petitioner and he does not deserve the concession of bail by this Court.

4. I have heard the learned counsel for the parties and perused the record.

5. The petitioner is stated to be in custody for the last more than 06 months and the final report under Section 173 Cr.P.C. has already been presented against him. Moreover, no criminal case was ever registered against the present petitioner. All the offences are triable by the Court of Magistrate and custody of the petitioner will not serve any meaningful purpose.

6. Without commenting on the merits of the case, the present petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail subject to his furnishing bail bonds/surety bonds to the satisfaction of the trial Court/Duty Magistrate/Chief Judicial Magistrate, concerned. The petitioner shall surrender his passport before the trial Court and shall not leave India without prior permission of the concerned trial Court.
