SHEEL NAGU, C.J. (Oral)

1. Learned Senior counsel for respondents No.4 and 5 informs that the outstanding dues, which were due in the year 2017, when the order passed by the District Magistrate u/s 14 of the Securitisation and Reconstruction of Financial Assets and Enforcement of Security Interest Act, 2002 was issued, have undergone a change due to elapse of time.
2. The present petition filed by the Bank raises a grievance of non-execution of the order passed by District Magistrate on 29.11.2017 vide Annexure P-2.
3. This petition was filed some time in the year 2022, after five years with no explanation for delayed approach.
4. It would be appropriate that the petitioner-Bank files a fresh application before the District Magistrate, who is directed to decide the same expeditiously as possible, in accordance with law.

5. With aforesaid liberty, petition stands disposed of.
