CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE KARAMJIT SINGH

Present: Ms. Aashna Gill, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Inderjeet Singh Ladher, DAG, Punjab.

Mr. Rahul Kesar, Advocate for the complainant.

KARAMJIT SINGH, J. (ORAL)

1. Prayer is for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner in criminal case having FIR No.61 dated 23.07.2024 registered under Sections 126(2), 115(2), 117(4), 191(2), 190, 351(3) of BNS (under Section 109 of BNS added and then deleted later on), registered at Police Station Julkan, District Patiala.

2. On the last date of hearing, detailed order was passed by this Court granting interim bail to the petitioner with direction to join investigation with the police, as it was brought to the notice of this Court that only simple injury was attributed to the present petitioner, who is alleged to be having rope with the help of which he tried to strangle the complainant.

3. Today, counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner apprised the Court that the petitioner has joined the investigation with the police in compliance of previous order.

4. The present petition is resisted by the counsel for complainant who submits that no doubt, the injury attributed to the petitioner is declared simple in nature but the petitioner is facing serious charges as he tried to strangle the complainant with the help of rope at the time of occurrence. It is further submitted that co-accused Baljinder Singh caused grievous injury with the help of iron rod, to the complainant.

5. State counsel on instructions from Inspector Kulwinder Singh made statement that petitioner who has joined investigation, is not required for the purpose of further investigation or custodial interrogation by the police.

6. It is apparent that only simple injuries caused with blunt weapon are attributed to the present petitioner and offence under Section 109 of BNS is already deleted by the police and furthermore, the petitioner is not required by the police for the purpose of any further investigation or custodial interrogation.

7. In light of the above, without commenting on the merits of the case, the present petition is allowed and order of interim bail dated 25.10.2024 is made absolute. The petitioner is to abide by the conditions as are provided under Section 482 (2) of BNSS.
