KARAMJIT SINGH, J. (ORAL)

1. The present petition has been filed by the petitioner under Section 482 BNSS seeking grant of anticipatory bail in a criminal case having FIR No.162 dated 14.08.2024 (Annexure P-1), registered under Sections 132, 221, 262, 304(2), 190, 191 of BNS 2023, Police Station Gurusahai, District Ferozepur.

2. The allegations in nutshell are that on 14.08.2024, police officials raided the house of the petitioner to arrest him in one another case and petitioner and other members of his family attacked the members of police party and gave them kick/fist blows and in the meantime, petitioner managed to escape from there.

3. On the last date of hearing, the petitioner was granted interim bail with direction to join the investigation, as the counsel for the petitioner asserted that story put forth by the police is highly improbable as the police party comprised of ten members, so the possibility of they being over powered by the petitioner and his accomplices is very remote and further, some of the co-accused were already given concession of interim bail.

4. Today, counsel for the petitioner brought to the notice of this Court that by virtue of aforesaid order of interim bail, the petitioner joined investigation with the police.

5. The State counsel on instructions from ASI Mahender Singh has not disputed that pursuant to the order of interim bail, the petitioner has joined investigation with the police.

6. From the perusal of Annexure P-2, it appears that co-accused were given concession of anticipatory bail by the Court of Additional Sessions Judge, Ferozepur vide order dated 21.09.2024, which is available on the record.

7. From the perusal of the FIR, it is not clear as to whether police raided the house of the petitioner in order to arrest him in some another case wherein he was an accused and was required by the police.

8. In view of the above, without commenting on the merits of the case, the present petition is allowed and order of interim bail dated 08.11.2024 is hereby made absolute, subject to the conditions as envisaged under Section 482 (2) of BNSS, 2023.
