CM-13305-CWP-2025

RA-CW-400-2025

1. Present review application has been filed for the review of the order dated 17.07.2025 passed by this Court in CWP-19775-2025.
2. Learned counsel for the review applicant/petitioner submits that now the petitioner has changed his mind so as to press the above mentioned writ petition on merits, which petition was dismissed as not pressed any further.
3. I have heard learned counsel for the review applicant/petitioner.
4. A bare perusal of the order dated 17.07.2025 passed by this Court shows that after arguing for some time and after taking instructions from the petitioners, who were present in the Court, learned counsel for the petitioners decided not to press the present petition any further. That being so, the change of mind of the petitioner so as to press again the writ petition is no ground to recall the said order so as to decide the writ petition on merits at a later stage.

5. Further, this process being adopted by the review applicant-petitioner cannot be allowed. Hence, no ground for interference by this Court is made out and the present review application is accordingly dismissed.
