...Petitioner

vs.

State of Punjab and Anr.

...Respondents

Coram : Hon'ble Mr. Justice N.S.Shekhawat

Present : Mr. Mayur Karkra, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. I.P.S Sabharwal, DAG, Punjab.

Mr. Ishan Sharma, Advocate for the respondent No.2.

N.S.Shekhawat J. (Oral)

1. The petitioner has filed the present petition under Section 482 of B.N.S.S with a prayer to grant anticipatory bail to him in a case FIR No. 154, dated 13.07.2017, under Sections 420, 465,467,468,471,506 and 120-B of IPC, registered at Police Station City Kharar, District SAS Nagar (Annexure P-1).

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the petitioner has no concern with the allegations levelled by the complainant in the present FIR and he had only sung a song, which was allegedly written by the complainant. He further contends that even the matter has been amicably resolved between the parties and the custodial interrogation of the petitioner may not be required.

3. On the other hand learned State counsel has vehemently opposed the submissions made by learned counsel for the petitioner on the ground that serious allegations have been levelled against the petitioner and he is not entitled to grant of concession of anticipatory bail.

4. Learned counsel for the complainant also submits the matter has been amicably resolved between the parties and the he has no objection, if the present petition is allowed.

5. I have heard the learned counsel for the parties and perused the record carefully in the present case.

6. From the record, it is apparent that as per the allegations levelled by the complainant , the only dispute relates to singing of a song by the present petitioner. Even, in the peculiar facts and circumstances of the present case, the police may not require the custody of the petitioner for further investigation. Moreover, vide the compromise deed the matter has already been compromised between the parties.

7. Thus, without commenting any further, the present petition is allowed and the petitioner is granted concession of anticipatory bail, subject to the conditions as provided under Sections 482 (2) of B.N.S.S. It will be open for the Investigating Officer to call the petitioner to join the investigation, if so required, by issuing a written notice in this regard and he shall abide by the conditions mentioned in Section 482 (2) of B.N.S.S.

8. Pending application(s), if any, stand(s), disposed of, accordingly.
