There is no representation on behalf of the petitioner, hence, Mr. Harshit Singla, Advocate, who is present in Court is appointed as Legal Aid Counsel to assist this Court on behalf of the petitioners.

Counsel appearing on behalf of respondents Nos. 5 to 8 and 11 has informed this Court that the present writ petition has been rendered infructuous since the petitioners were primarily seeking clubbing of three cases, however, in so far as FIR No. 402 dated 10.09.2016 is concerned, the investigation in the said case has already been concluded and a challan was submitted while in FIR No. 195, a cancellation report had been filed. He submits that since the aforesaid application had been filed for clubbing at the stage of investigation and the investigation in these matters having already been concluded, no further grievance would survive to pursue the present petition.

In view of the aforesaid statement, the present petition is disposed of as having been rendered infructuous at this stage.

After the order had been passed but before the order was signed, Mr. J.S. Toor, Advocate and Mr. Adhiraj Toor, Advocates for the petitioners have also put an appearance in the Court and they also do not dispute the factual position as noticed above.

Copy of this order be sent to the High Court Legal Service Committee for information and necessary action.
