2. Learned counsel contends that the petitioner has been in custody for about 4 months. He alleges false implication. However, even if the contents of the FIR are taken to be correct, he is stated to have written a note of demand of an amount from the complainant, however, he was neither present at the spot nor had threatened. Challan stands presented on 28.07.2025, however, the charges have not been framed. In all there are 13 prosecution witnesses. The petitioner is not involved in any similar case but 1 under Immoral Trafficking Act, wherein he is on bail. Reliance is placed on the judgment passed by Hon'ble The Supreme Court titled as Maulana Mohd. Amir Rashadi vs. State of U.P. and others, 2012(2) SCC 382.

3. The custody certificate dated 18.09.2025, filed by the learned State counsel is taken on record. As per the same, the petitioner is behind bars for 3 months and 17 days.

7. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, in particular that the petitioner is in custody for the last 3 months and 17 days; on bail in other case; challan was presented on 28.07.2025, however, the charges have yet not been framed and there are 13 prosecution witnesses in total, the trial is likely to take a considerable time, further incarceration of the petitioner would be violative of his right enshrined under Article 21 of the Constitution of India, the present petition is allowed.

8. The petitioner is ordered to be released on regular bail, subject to furnishing bail/surety bonds to the satisfaction of trial Court/Duty Magistrate concerned, if not required in any other case and shall abide by the following conditions:-
